THIRTEEN STAND FOR PRINCIPLE.

Loyal Republicans Deluged With Telegrams.

Resentment State-wide at Party Name Theft.

Jordan Has First Rumpus Over Sample Ballot.

BY DOU GUERNSEY.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) SACRAMENTO, Sept. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The thirteen stalwart Republicans, who blocked the grand larceny plot of the Bull Moose to steal the Republican name and machinery through the medium of the so-called Republican State Convention, were deluged with telegrams today from hundreds of true Republicans throughout California.

Many of the telegrams were from women voters, who indignantly protested against the attempted robbery of the Grand Old Party by the Linsner-Finn political gashmen. The chairman of the various Republican State and other Republican organizations drafted resolutions to Senators Wolfe and Wright, leaders of the straight Republican fight in the recent convention. Senator Wolfe received over a hundred telegrams from San Francisco Republicans complimenting him on his magnificent fight against almost overwhelming odds. Chairman Blackstock of the Los Angeles County Republican Central Committee sent a 200-word telegram to Senator Wright thanking him on the basis of 15,000 loyal Taft Republicans in that county.

JUST RESENTMENT. These telegrams bear striking evidence that the Republicans of this State resent the dastardly scheme of Linsner-Finn machinists to wreck and disable the Grand Old Party. They show that the Republicans of California are aroused ready to fight to the last ditch to thwart the piratical scheme and preserve the name, traditions and principles of the party of Lincoln and Grant.

The Taft men here say the day of compromise is over. The hour to fight has struck. The eighty-eight delegates who betrayed their party will be expelled with contempt and defiance. The Johnsons, Linsners and Rovells will be treated with the same contempt and the same defiance. These "Bull Moose" traitors took a big job in their attempt to steal the Republican name and sooner or later that fact will be brought home to them with a vengeance. They will send them hurtling into the vortex of oblivion.

The twenty-four members of the Los Angeles delegation who attended the convention, although sworn to support Presidential electors favoring President Taft, the regular Republican nominee, broke their oaths, swallowed the Linsner-Finn "programme" and voted for Presidential electors favoring Roosevelt, a candidate of another party. Senator Thompson of Alhambra and E. A. Emmons, Assemblyman nominee from Los Angeles, were not here to vote. Emmons was nominated on the Taft ticket in the primary election of September 3, but a few days before the election the "Progressives" announced that he would support Roosevelt electors. Edward W. Closs, was the "Progressive" candidate against Emmons, but withdrew a few days before the primaries, when he learned that the brand was investigating his police record. Apparently Emmons isn't anxious to put himself on record and that's why he remained away from the convention.

ATTITUDE OF HINKLE. Of the eighty-eight "Progressive" delegates, E. C. Hinkle, of San Diego, nominee for the Assembly, was the only one who voted against the Linsner crowd when it came to the repudiation of the Republican national platform and the nominees of the party. When asked today why he voted as he did, Hinkle said: "I felt morally bound by my oath to support the Republican nominees. I did not see how I could vote against the Republican platform and feel that I had lived up to my oath."

PRIMARY LAW BUNBLED. Secretary of State Jordan announced this afternoon that he will submit to Atty.-Gen. Webb his plan for placing both the Taft and Roosevelt electors in the Republican column on the ballot. Jordan said he would not arrive at a decision until after he had asked Webb for an opinion and definition of his duties under the direct primary law made created by the bungling and undoubtedly unconstitutional amendments adopted under the general style of Presidential preference primary law.

No Linsner-Finn party man pretends to believe that the scheme announced by Jordan is legal, but every Bull Moose hails the plan as one that gives them a tremendous political advantage in the fight for possession of the Republican place on the ballot. Boss Finn of San Francisco and "Chattering Chet" Rowell are credited with the honor of devising the natty little scheme to make Jordan desert his legal functions as a ministerial officer and assume the duties of a judicial functionary. Regardless of the opinion of Webb, if an opinion is rendered, the straight Republicans will fight their case out in the courts. Senator Wolfe announced today that lawyers are already busy preparing evidence for the Taftites.

REFUSE TO PRINT SAMPLE. State Board of Control Turns Down Request of Secretary of State for Dummy Ballots.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) SACRAMENTO, Sept. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The plan of the State Board of Control, which has characterized the relations of Secretary of State Jordan with the State Board of Control for many months past, today was rudely ruffled. Such a thing as a proleptic printing order was the cause of the rumpus. "Petition," says Jordan, "is a 'politic' intimates the Board of Control, in discussing the matter. Jordan sent to the State Board of Control a requisition on the State printer for 500 'dummy' ballots and asked that one or two copies of the sample ballot be printed, as it will be used in the State Assembly District, showing the sale of electors, including two Republican, one of which will have 'Republican for Taft' after the names and the other 'Republican for Roosevelt' after the names.

The State Board of Control claims that Jordan wanted 500 copies of this sample ballot printed and announced that it had no right to approve an order for its printing until the form should be approved by the Attorney-General. Jordan claims that this was his reason for having one or two models set up and printed. James Cremin, election expert in Jordan's office, tonight went to San Francisco and will have a copy printed at Jordan's personal expense and then will submit it to Atty.-Gen. Webb for his approval or disapproval. The great question in the whole thing is whether the two "Republican" groups of electors shall go on the ballot.

Now J. Francis Neelan, chairman of the State Board of Control, intimates that Jordan might wish to get 500 sample ballots printed so that they might be sent out to the county clerks, according to law, but in such a form as may not be approved today or tomorrow by the Attorney-General. Jordan claims that such an intimation is absurd and states positively that Neelan knew he wanted only a few proofs of the ballot so that the Attorney-General might have a good copy upon which to pass, instead of being gotten up by pasting typewritten names upon an old ballot. The whole job, according to State Printer Richardson, would have cost $10 or $12.

DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM. State Committee to Reaffirm Baltimore Declaration at Meeting in San Francisco Tomorrow.

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.) SACRAMENTO, Sept. 26.—The Democratic State Central Committee will convene in San Francisco September 28 to perfect its organization and put into effect the platform adopted here this morning by the Democratic State convention. In general, the platform follows the recommendations of the national platform adopted at Baltimore, and the recommendations advanced yesterday by William Jennings Bryan. The most important planks are:

- (1) Support of Wilson and Marshall.
- (2) Direct election of Senators.
- (3) Condemnation of the Sherman anti-trust law as applied to trades unions.
- (4) A graduated income inheritance tax law.
- (5) The pensioning of indigent mothers with young children.
- (6) Indorsement of the initiative, referendum, recall and women's suffrage.
- (7) Limitation of injunctions.
- (8) Extension of the women's election law.
- (9) Opposition to the revival of race track gambling.
- (10) Protest against the present operation of the juke mill at San Quentin penitentiary.
- (11) The election of delegates to the national convention by Congress districts, instead of by State-wide vote.

Inharmonious. SYNDICALISTS ARE ARRESTED.

TWO FACTIONS OF RADICALS CLASH AT SEATTLE.

Attempt to Use American Flag is Defeated at Victor Berger Meeting—Political War is Promised in Washington—Socialists Overcome Industrial Workers of the World.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) SEATTLE (Wash.) Sept. 26.—The arrest by the police last night of two members of the Industrial Workers of the World, who tried to break up the Socialist street meeting, is said to be the beginning of what promises to be a long fight between radicals and conservatives for control of the Socialist party in Washington. At a primary on September 10 the direct action or Industrial Workers of the World faction was defeated, and the party machinery is nominally in the hands of the moderate faction, but the syndicalists have not yet surrendered.

The meeting of Victor Berger in Seattle last Sunday night was held under the auspices of the radicals. An attempt to place an American flag on the stage failed, and Joseph Gilbert, Socialist candidate for Congress from the First District, was excluded from the platform. Mr. Berger, after the meeting, said that Gilbert should have been on the stage, as he wished to make a special appeal for votes to him.

Mandamus proceedings to prevent the Industrial Worker leaders from using the word "Socialist" were discussed at a meeting called for next Sunday.

CHINESE ENTERS POLITICS. Congressional Nominee Is First Oriental to Be Named in Boston for an Elective Office.

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.) BOSTON, Sept. 26.—Charles H. Shue, born Chinese parents at Seattle, thirty-nine years ago, is the first Chinese to be nominated for an elective office in Boston. He received the Republican nomination for representative from the Chinatown district. Shue says he will "fight for greater privileges for his own people."

PRESIDENT IN LAW ACCOMPANIES. SISTER-IN-LAW ACCOMPANIES.

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.) BOSTON, Sept. 26.—President Taft arrived at 2:45 today on his way from Altoona, Pa., to Beverly, Mass. Thomas K. Laughlin of Pittsburgh, a sister of Mrs. Taft, and Chairman Hill of the Republican Committee, accompanied the party.

CONNECTICUT POLITICS. SMITH FOR GOVERNOR.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) HARTFORD (Conn.) Sept. 26.—Herbert Knox Smith, former United States commissioner of corporations, was nominated today for Governor of Connecticut by acclamation at the Progressive State convention.

CHURCHILL CHOSEN.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) CONCORD (N. H.) Sept. 26.—William Churchill, an author, was indorsed unanimously as Progressive candidate for Governor of New Hampshire by the party's State convention today.

REPUBLICANS WILL FIGHT JORDAN PLAN IN COURTS.

Undaunted by the Heney Intimation that the Courts Dare Not Rule Against the Bull Moose Contention, Loyal Organization Will Use Every Lawful Means to Resist Attempted Theft of Party Name.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Whether the Attorney-General of California approves the action of Secretary of State Frank Jordan in placing two Republican lists of Presidential electors upon the ballot form or not, the Taft Republicans, who insist they are the only Republicans in the field, will fight to prevent the usurping of the name "Republican" by the third or national Progressive party. The fight will be waged in the courts, under the primary law must be submitted by the Secretary of State to the Attorney-General and by him approved before the ballots are printed. Jordan says he is placing two tickets of Presidential electors upon the ballot, because he wants to be fair and give the supporters of each a chance to vote.

When Jordan first made the proposition, the third party leaders at once agreed to his plan. The Taft Republicans, however, are objecting to it, and will fight it in the courts if necessary. The Republicans, who were members of the Republican convention at Sacramento, believe the President-elect nominated by them and filed with the Secretary of State have the right to the Republican column on the ballot, and are planning to fight for it.

BUT ONE REPUBLICAN PARTY. They take the position—and southern Republicans have agreed with them—that the only method by which the third party delegates may be placed upon the ballot is by petition. They maintain that under the primary law the national Progressive party was not a party at the last general election, and therefore, did not get a per cent of the vote. Consequently, they say, the third party has no right to be placed on the ballot. They maintain that under the primary law the national Progressive party was not a party at the last general election, and therefore, did not get a per cent of the vote. Consequently, they say, the third party has no right to be placed on the ballot.

Attorneys acting for the regular Republicans have for some time been preparing to bring suits if the third party electors are placed upon the ballot other than by petition, or if the Taft electors are excluded from the ballot. Until something definite is announced from Sacramento on the Jordan plan, it is not probable that the suits will be brought. One it is believed upon who has been petitioned by the Secretary of State to place the Taft electors upon the ballot in the Republican column and another suit will be initiated to enjoin the third party electors' names from being used as Republican electors of any sort.

ATTORNEYS AT WORK. The attorneys who have been at work on the case have not been announced yet as the attorneys for the Republican party, but they are working with the knowledge of the Republican National Committee and will be prepared to enjoin the third party electors' names from being used within the next few days.

The announcement by Francis J. Heney, before the Sacramento convention, that the courts of California dare not rule against the Roosevelt men, is not worrying the attorneys for the Taft men. Heney gave the impression that because of the recall judges would fear to make rulings that might impair the efficiency of the direct primary law.

PERFECTING ORGANIZATION. Tomorrow Senator Edward J. Wells, was the "only organized team" ready to govern the country and that neither the Republican nor Progressive parties would control Congress, in any event. He predicted that in all probability there would be a democratic House and a Democratic Senate and added that the leaders of the Progressive party, if elected, would be "as unsuccessful as the present President of the United States." He added that the country, unless electing a Democratic Executive, would face "two or four years more of disagreement with the Legislative branch of the government," and that if the Progressive party won there might be an "interesting four years, but not tranquil."

He argued no programme except the Democratic showed an intention of assisting organized labor.

He declared that in the matter of organization, labor had an equal right with capital and that industries protected by the tariff had been most persistent in fighting organized labor.

PROSPERITY IS AT STAKE. PRESIDENT SEES DISASTER IN DEMOCRATIC VICTORY.

In a Telegram to the Commercial Travelers' Sound Money League Mr. Taft Enumerates the Calamities That Would Follow Defeat of the Republican Party.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) BEVERLY (Mass.) Sept. 26.—President Taft has sent a telegram to H. W. Dearborn, chairman of the Executive Committee of the Commercial Travelers' Sound Money League, now in session in New York, expressing the opinion that business unrest will result if the Democratic party is victorious in the coming election. The telegram, in part, is as follows:

"The league has done so much good in the past that it is of the utmost importance that its influence should be exerted in another national campaign, on the issue of which largely depends, in my judgment, the continuance of the great era of prosperity, high wages and good profits, which is now opening to the people of this country. I ask the business men of this country what encouragement they will find and what new investments they feel like making if they arise from their beds on the sixth day of November next and learn that the Democratic party will, after the 4th of March, 1913, be in absolute control of the Executive, the Senate and the House of Representatives?"

"No one can affirm the extent of the changes which would be effected in our economic system by such a result except from what has happened in the past. The tariff would then be revised on Democratic principles as shown by the Democratic bills of the last two sessions of the Congress, our whole economic system changed. Prosperity would be impaired and the demand for labor would show a marked falling off."

TELE OF RAKE-OFF. Witness Gives History of Government Coal Contracts in Alaska in Testifying in Conspiracy Case.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) TACOMA (Wash.) Sept. 26.—In the trial of C. E. Houston and John H. Bullock, charged with conspiracy to defraud the government in Alaska coal contracts, H. J. Douglas, formerly auditor of the Northwest Commercial Company, of which the late Capt. Jarvis was treasurer, and manager, testified today that the lease of the North Coast Lighterage Company, which was sold to the John J. Senon company, was dated on the same day the coal contracts were awarded. He also testified that he asked Jarvis relative to FAVOR A BOND ISSUE.

Venturans Want Good Roads
They Are Willing to Pay For Them.VENTURA, Sept. 26.—At a good roads meeting held in this city yesterday, at which was a large and representative attendance, it was found by vote and on motion that the sense of the people of the county was for the purpose of building a system of good roads. By figures presented it was shown that the county assessable property would admit of bonding up to the sum of $300,000.It is the intention to have two through county roads from this city to the county line, one by way of Saticoy and Chatsworth and the other by way of Fillmore and Newhall.
These, with the road projected by the State Highway Commission to go by way of Conejo and Newbury Park, will make three through county roads.
Another road it is proposed to build will be that of the Maricopa-to-Ventura road. This division of the roads will satisfy all sections and make a complete system from which to run laterals.Impulse.
PECULIAR CASE OF KLEPTOMANIA.DOVE OF PRETTY THINGS GETS GIRL INTO JAIL.Her Alleged Penchant for the Money and Clothing of Her Friends
Is Said to Have Caused Her Placment in Jail.[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
PORTLAND (Or.) Sept. 26.—[Exclusive.] Possessed with a strange type of kleptomania, pretty Anna Cooper, aged 19, is held in the County Jail following her arrest by Mrs. Lola G. Baldwin, superintendent of the department of public safety for girls, and slowly the remarkable career of the girl since her arrest last week, is being revealed.The investigation shows that Miss Cooper stole numerous articles of clothing and jewelry from girls at the Y.W.C.A., where she stayed and also took considerable money. She made no attempt to use any of the things."I just liked to look at them," is the explanation she gave to Mrs.
Baldwin, the detective who forced her, word by word, to confess that she had taken the things, among which was a complete wedding trousseau belonging to a girl who occupied a room near her.Incidentally, the arrest of Miss Cooper broke up a romance of more than two years standing. She had come to love and be married to Howard Gove, a young man to whom she had become engaged in Topeka, and who now lives here. He now refuses to marry her.What little money the girl had she turned over to those whom she had loved. In addition to returning the property, and the victims refused today to sign any complaints against her. Her parents have been notified and money is expected tomorrow to take her back to her father's home.FINANCE AND HEALTH.
Municipal League Discusses Accounting and Disease Prevention at Convention in Session in Berkeley.[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
BERKELEY (Cal.) Sept. 26.—Municipal accounting methods were studied today by the Department of Clarks, Auditors and Assessors of the League of California Municipalities.
M. L. Hanson, city auditor of Berkeley, leading the discussion. Special charters for small cities were advocated by City Attorney C. R. Holton of Whittier before the Department of Attorneys, and an interesting discussion of the subjects of municipal finance, supplies, health service and simplification of methods was engaged in before the general assembly.Among the matters to be taken up is the securing of a new county Republican Central Committee, a legiti-mate successor to the old committee. In the call the loyal Republicans include the following:
"A political party does not try to defeat itself, therefore, the pretended Republican county convention on September 7, was not a Republican convention, and has no right to the name of Republican."VAPORS CAUSE INSANITY.
Driven temporarily insane by a strange vapor arising from the sloughs and swamp land near Point Mugu, which vapor has been found to affect the mind of those who have been drinkers, Frank Morgan, camp cook for a party of workmen, left the camp dressed only in his nature's garb at an early hour this morning and after running through the sloughs and green front near Hansen immediately broke into the lighthouse.
Lighthouse Keeper C. P. Allen heard the man making wild cries and hammering at the lighthouse door. Morgan was shouting that there was a ship in distress and that he was a wireless station sending out help messages.Allen at once notified the police, who later found the man terribly chilled, lying on the beach, still wearing his clothes. Upon being brought to this city the man became rational again. This is the third case of temporary insanity caused by the peculiar vapors.Possess searching through the Camarillo country throughout the day for claws that might lead to the arrest of one of the daring robbers, who forced A.
M. Myers to enter his own store and rob it, and the postoffice safe of about $300, have found but one new trace. This clue indicates that the robbers came from Los Angeles in an automobile and left in the car immediately after the crime was committed. Charles Johnson of the S. P. dismissed the city and saw the strange car come into the city about half an hour before the time two men got out, but the driver appeared to be laboring with a breakdown. It left hurriedly soon after the crime.DEATH FOLLOWS OPERATION.

FOR THREE.Men Condemned to Gallows
May Not Hang.Wallace Urges as His Excuse Initiative Petitions.Execution of Women Slayers Was to Occur Today.[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
SACRAMENTO, Sept. 26.—Acting Gov. Wallace this afternoon issued reprieves to three condemned men in San Quentin, who were to have been hanged tomorrow morning for murdering women. The reprieves extend to the latter part of November.The men reprieved are Alexander Szaszfar of San Francisco, Willie Luis (Chinese) of San Luis Obispo and Ed
Williams, an Indian of Butte county.
FIFTY THOUSAND SIGNATURES.In granting the reprieves, Gov. Wallace issued the following statement:
"I have decided to reprieve these men largely because from advice received from various county clerks and from the Secretary of State, I find that over 50,000 signatures to the petition for the abolition of capital punishment in this State have been obtained. This will result in the ultimate submission of the question to the people of the State either at a special election or at the general election to be held two years hence. If, indeed, legislative action be not had at the next session of the Legislature. If the people shall, by their votes, abolish capital punishment, I am willing that the punishment of those who are now under sentence of death shall be brought into harmony with the vote thus taken."WARRANTS NOT SERVED.
Seattle Banker Ill in Virginia.
Counsel Is Engaged to Appear for the Accused.[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] SEATTLE, Sept. 26.—Warrants issued at Mt. Vernon, Wash. county, for the arrest of Jacob Purth, Edward W. Andrews, Daniel Kelleher and Rollin V. Ankeny, officials of the Seattle National Bank, charging them with aiding and abetting the private bank of W. E. Schrickler & Company of La Conner, to remain open and receive deposits when they knew it was insolvent, were not served today.Kelleher is ill in Virginia. The other defendants have arranged to furnish bail immediately upon arrest and to be represented by counsel when the case is called at Mt. Vernon.On behalf of the Seattle bankers, it is alleged that the failure of the Schrickler bank was caused by a loan of $100,000 to a small sawmill company owned largely, if not wholly, by Schrickler himself, in Anacortes.Mr. Purth said today no part of the money loaned by the Seattle bank to W. E. Schrickler & Company had ever been paid by that firm.REPUBLICANS ISSUE CALL.

ganized in a separate meeting, have today issued a call for a Republican county convention to be held on Octo-

BUT READY FOR WAR.
[BY CABLE AND A. P. TO THE TIMES.]
BALLYRONET (Ireland) Sept. 26.— Ulster men are praying and hoping for peace, but if that is denied to them they are ready for war, according to the Earl of Kilmorey, while addressing a big outdoor demonstration of Irish Unionists here today.Some 20,000 people from the county of Down were at the meeting which was the final Unionist demonstration before Ulster Day (September 28).
The Earl declared his intention of refusing to submit to home rule, if the act passed.A large number of Irish peers, he said, including Field Marshal Lord Roberts and the Marquis of Dufferin, had signed a pledge not to accept a seat in either House of an Irish Legislature.TROOPS ARRIVING

BELFAST, Sept. 26.—Regiments of Highland light infantry and Scottish borderers were drafted into Belfast today in anticipation of trouble Saturday, Ulster Day, when the covenant in defiance of home rule is to be signed by Unionists.More than 1000 members of "Young Citizens Volunteers of Ireland" were enrolled last night. The new organization is to assist when called upon by the civil authorities in the maintenance of peace.The demonstration at Portadown yesterday was one of the most remarkable of the campaign, owing to the display of armed force and the enormous number of Orangemen and Unionists, who assembled to greet Sir Edward Carson and other Unionist leaders.Frederick E. Smith, M.P. for Liverpool, expressed the opinion that the battle already was won. He added:
"The government, even if it has the wickedness, wholly lacks the nerve to order the British army to use coercion
in Ulster."PLEDGE MONEY

the lad was white with pain, but gave no sign of what was wrong and it was only when his mother discovered his bloody underclothing thrown under his bed that his condition was discovered. The day following the accident, the bullet was removed from the fleshy part of the boy's thigh by a physician.Over $2000 Pairs Men's

NEWS REPORTS FROM CORRESPONDENTS OF THE TIMES.

FINAL DEAL IS CONSUMMATED.

Pasadena Telephone Companies Officially Merged.

J. F. Eason Is Made President of the Concern.

Modern Boys Good as Old, Says an Authority.

PASADENA, Sept. 26.—The final transfer of the stock of the Pasadena branch of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company to the Home Telephone Company of that city was consummated yesterday when H. T. Scott, president of the Mercantile Trust Company and the Mercantile National Bank of San Francisco, accompanied by Attorney H. D. Pillsbury, two of the principal stockholders of the old company, arrived and completed the official quorum of stockholders called together for this purpose.

According to Scott's statement the stock of the company, controlling several very valuable franchises and a large plant, sold for approximately $550,000. The entire matter went through the hands of the State Railway Commission about three months ago, when permission for this exchange of property was granted after a hearing which lasted several days, and which was opposed by a number of the stockholders.

At the meeting a new set of officers was named, with the exception of the president and the secretary, J. F. Eason of Pasadena was retained as president in compliance to his able work of the past. J. Snowball was continued as secretary. H. M. Robinson was elected vice-president and the board of directors includes Fred W. Wilson, J. Pittman, W. Vetter, president of the First National Bank; Attorney Rowland and F. H. Anderson. The Los Angeles legal firm of Mott & Dillon were named attorneys for the company.

Discussing the sale, Scott stated that the majority of stockholders had desired the change in ownership and that all that was essential to gratify their wish was the approbation of the Railroad Commission.

BOYS ALWAYS GOOD.

That although there seem to be more bad boys now than there were a decade ago, it is probably only because juvenile courts flourish at present and their misbehavior is brought to notice.

This is one of the opinions held by Calvin Derrick, for five years superintendent of the original George Junior Republic, at Freeville, N. Y., and now on his way to Iowa, California charge of the Preston Industrial School for Boys, a State institution. He is spending several days in Pasadena. Yesterday he visited the Chino George Junior Republic, which was the fifth to be founded, and said that he was the guest of honor at a reception given at the home of Mrs. E. M. Fowler, No. 281 Grove street, this city, who is a prominent Pasadena philanthropist.

In reply to a question as to whether he will establish the principles along which the George Junior Republic is operated, at the Preston home, Derrick last night said:

"I have not been there yet and have not even thought to myself just what I shall do. I do not intend to overturn things, and I do not know what the State will want. I hope, though, that the progressive theories which have been so successfully proven at Freeville will meet with favor.

"I believe that we are now on the threshold of a great advance in the treatment of the children who are placed in these institutions. The question has a great deal to do with the mental status of the child. Take two boys who were formerly both classified as normal and manageable. With modern science it can often be proved with such a pair that, while to outward appearance they are the same, one is deficient mentally at the other abnormally developed. These indications do not show up on the surface."

SOME BONDS TO SELL.

Mayor Thum declared yesterday that next Tuesday will see a part of the $1,250,000 water bond issue sold anyway, and that if all of the water companies, whose holdings are being taken over by the city, cannot be bought at once they will be purchased one at a time.

The State has offered to take $250,000 worth of the bonds, the Mayor says, and it is believed by the city officials that other bids for the remaining bonds may yet be received before the next session of the Council, which is the time set for opening them.

The purchase by the State of these bonds will permit the city to purchase the North Pasadena Land and Water Company's system at once. The next plant to be purchased, if the city is to take them one by one, will probably be the Pasadena Lake Vineyard Land and Water Company.

BUILDING NEARLY DONE.

The new Broadway Brothers' furniture store building, at No. 278 East Colorado street, is rapidly nearing completion, and the firm announced yesterday that the store will probably be opened between October 20 and 25. The store has been stocked with fifteen carloads of furniture.

This building is one of the most pretentious of several business blocks that have been in course of construction during the summer. It is three stories in height, with a basement and a mezzanine floor in the first story.

GETTING READY FOR BAZAAR.

The women of the different churches of this city are already at work on the Christmas plans. The first meeting of the managers of the Christmas Bazaar, which, as formerly, will be a huge bazaar in which nearly all of the churches of the city will unite in the sale of their Christmas goods, has been held, and the dates for the bazaar have been set from November 20 to 23, inclusive.

The place where the shop will be has not been decided as yet. A committee composed of Mrs. William Franklin Knight and Mrs. Halpin I. Stuart has been appointed to attend to these details, and Mrs. Walter Edwards has been appointed chairman of the committee on advertising and printing. She will be assisted by Miss Majorie Sinclair and Mrs. C. A. Dibble.

CITY BRIEFS.

Dr. D. F. Fox of this city will speak at Occidental College at 11 o'clock this morning.

The first assembly at Throop Institute will be held next Monday morning. The address will be delivered by Jacob O. Cross, the new principal of the Pasadena High School.

A conference of all those who have charge of the different branches of physical work of the Young Men's Christian Association here was held last night at which plans for a broadening of the work were made.

The brilliantly lighted streets marking the second night of the fall fashion show attracted many Pasadena downtown last night.

Dr. and Mrs. C. F. Holder of No. 471 Bellflower avenue, are spending this month fishing on Upper Klamath Lake, in Oregon.

The Nazarene University, in the northeastern part of the city, has opened for the first semester with an enrollment of 263 students.

Residents in the northwestern part of the city have a movement on foot to secure a branch of the Pasadena public library to be located in the vicinity of the corner of Lincoln avenue and Dakota street.

President James A. E. Scherer of Throop Institute and Dean George A. Damon yesterday received interesting letters from J. D. Merrifield and Ralph W. Perkins, who are touring abroad on Throop travel scholarships. Young Merrifield is expected home on the 15th inst.

PLANS FOR SEWERAGE.

Election Called for Providing Bonds to Water Large Area Southeast of Pomona.

POMONA, Sept. 26.—Former City Engineer Sleeper, who recently completed the preparatory engineering plans for the proposed big drainage system in the locality of the Chino and McAllister ranches, states that the San Bernardino County Supervisors have called an election for the formal voting of this proposition, which will mean much to the locality southeast of here.

Sleeper has spent much time in planning for the drainage system, which will include the building of a large canal four miles long, eighteen feet wide and sixteen feet deep, and which, when completed, will drain 500 acres of rich alfalfa land. The ranchers in the vicinity of the proposed drainage canal are all in favor of the improvement and wish to commence work upon it as soon as the formal legal preliminaries can be put through.

City Superintendent of Schools W. P. Murphy reports that new pupils have been registering daily since the opening of the public high and grade schools here. There are now 410 registered in the High School and about 1890 in the grade schools. By January 1 he predicts there will be 2500 pupils enrolled in Pomona schools.

Miss Maude L. Mast, an assistant in the local public library, has just returned from a three months' European trip which she enjoyed with a party of a dozen other Southern Californians, among whom were Mrs. T. Hardy Smith and Mrs. Margaret Dilla of this city and Mrs. Jean Winton Avery of Los Angeles.

Miss Mast visited Naples, Rome, Venice, Florence, Pompeii, the principal cities in Germany, Holland, France and England and also journeyed into Scotland. She has now taken up her duties at the library and has gone on a belated vacation. Miss Margaret Dilla, a domestic science teacher in the local schools, is remaining in London for some time, pursuing special studies.

This city is being represented at the annual convention of the League of Pacific Municipalities, which opened at Berkeley yesterday, by City Attorney Guerin, Street Superintendent Baker, Councilman Boyd and Health Officer Wilson, who have gone for the purpose of securing as much information as possible regarding the best and most approved and up-to-date ways and methods of managing the affairs of their particular departments.

POMONA NOTES.

POMONA, Sept. 26.—Oliver R. Clark, who has resided for years on North Towne avenue, is a local home here. The deceased was 65 years old, was born in Boston, Mass., and came to Pomona twenty-five years ago, where he has been a respected resident. He is survived by a widow, a son, Oliver C. Clark, of this city and a brother, who lives in Pasadena.

The funeral of the late Charles B. Warren, who was found dead by his own hand at his isolated ranch home north of Lordsburg yesterday, was held from the Hanson-Bowers chapel on East Second street this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Interment was made in Lordsburg Cemetery.

The annual election of officers of Trinity Methodist Church, Sunday-school resulted as follows: John P. Evans, superintendent; W. B. Woy, secretary; and Adelbert Polson, Thomas Robinson, Mrs. F. H. Lane and Mrs. C. W. Gressly, Reception Committee. T. W. Patterson is corresponding secretary and Fred Ellsworth treasurer. Frank Ellsworth missionary treasurer and E. Genung chorister.

The Knights and Ladies of Security have installed newly-elected officers as follows: Arthur Ball, president; Mrs. Ida Schlichtenberg, vice-president; Mrs. H. McCausland, prelate; Mrs. Althea Page, secretary; Albert James, financier; Robert Edwards, sentinel; Mrs. R. Rich, guard; Clarence Page, conductor.

The following officers were elected by the members of the senior citizens' club of the High School and kind spirited voting: Neal Clark, president; Miss Ruth Carruthers, vice-president; Miss Ruth Carr, secretary; Clyde Paige, treasurer; and Miss Stella Wright, auditor. The large class is well organized, and the members are in all the activities of the school during the year.

WATER SUPPLY IS LIMITED.

Long Beach Compelled to Adopt Strict Rules.

Los Angeles Boys Prove to Be Adept Thieves.

Woman Takes Poison, but an Emetic Saves Her.

LONG BEACH, Sept. 26.—The conserving of the water supply of Long Beach has become a matter of great importance since the summer months when the drought and excessive use of water by citizens led to rules being passed which aroused the ire of the residents.

Water meters were installed in all the residences which have since been carefully watched as it was asserted that the Dominguez Water Company was intruding on the city's supply of the water.

For the past week the Cerritos Gun Club has been pumping water on its preserves northeast of the city to fill a new duck pond recently completed and for the past week the city's water supply has been so great as to be noticeable with the tanks eye, while careful measurements have demonstrated that there is a great decrease of the water.

At present the water department has overcome its recent shortage and all reservoirs are now full. The 1000-foot well which is expected to develop water from the lower aquifer wells now being pumped is down 400 feet and water is coming to the top of the pipe. The well will, however, be sunk the full distance to a new basin of water not yet tapped.

INFANTILE THIEVES.

John Hall and Frank Nordhoff of Los Angeles are in the City Jail charged with having within three hours stolen four horses and rigs, one automobile, two bushels of apples, three bicycles and enough newspapers, which they sold to furnish their breakfast.

The two boys last night stole a horse and buggy belonging to Ralph Sims, in Los Angeles, and drove to Long Beach. Later they stole an auto belonging to J. P. Craig and entered the city jail where they were abandoned it and sought shelter in a barn. This morning early they stole a horse and buggy from a house on morning Los Angeles paper and provided their breakfast after they were sold. Then they stole a rig belonging to E. E. Craig and drove it until two bicycles caught their fancy. Riding a bicycle was too much for the boys and they left the rig and stole a horse and buggy belonging to Mrs. G. M. Palmer, while his companion stole a horse and wagon belonging to G. D. Gates, which contained two bushels of apples, which they began peddling.

Sergeant Smith had his attention attracted to the boys and while talking to young Hall, who is an escapee from the detention home, his pal leaped from his wagon and stole a deer. The Hall boy was taken in custody and soon told of their various escapades. Young Nordhoff, after getting away from the officer, stole another bicycle and was en route to Los Angeles when overtaken. Both boys will be held for Los Angeles officers.

Mrs. D. J. Bryan, the young and pretty wife of the proprietor of a local rooming-house, last night looked like a doctored corpse when she was found dead in her room. She had a dozen anti-Kamnia tablets with suicidal intent. But her act was discovered and a powerful emetic saved her life. The doctor says Mrs. Bryan is not very far from recovery, but she is used to lessen pain, but taken in over-dose result in depressing heart action. At noon today Mrs. Bryan was reported out of danger. No reason for the attempt is known.

The Chamber of Commerce today made arrangements for the entertainment of two big delegations of excursionists from other cities. On Saturday the Chamber of Commerce will spend the day in Long Beach touring the city, visiting the harbor and taking luncheon at Hotel Virginia. On Sunday the Chamber will send an excursion here. Tomorrow evening the Chamber of Commerce will entertain a delegation of twenty-five members of the Intercity Association of San Gabriel Valley.

Frank Lewis, a carpenter, fell today from the roof of a new apartment-house and sustained serious injuries. One rib was fractured, the cartilage joining the ribs was torn loose, a forefinger dislocated, his wrist sprained and hip severely bruised.

ACTIVITY IS MANIFEST.

South Pasadena Chamber of Commerce Is Waging a Membership Campaign Record for Year.

SOUTH PASADENA, Sept. 26.—Much activity is evident at the local Chamber of Commerce headquarters as a result of the strenuous membership campaign being waged under the direction of Don S. Gates, and also as a result of the committee meetings held frequently on important civic questions. The membership has gained about 40 per cent the past year, and there are now 180 members. With more than 100 members, the Chamber is well equipped for the campaign for "200 members by October 1" gives promise of accomplishment. The members who were voted in at the last meeting are as follows: J. C. Allen, Herbert E. Andrews, Murray D. Baylis, A. W. Cass, Clarence Dean, A. H. Gates, D. W. Gates, J. C. Gates, D. F. Gates, Egbert J. Gates, Charles E. Grosse, Fred K. Groves, Andrew Holloway, B. F. Huntington, Gilbert Kingmaker, E. R. Kuykendall, George C. Lem, E. A. Merritt, S. C. Simons, W. A. Sloane, L. L. ECZEMA ON SCALP EARS AND NECK

Itched So Could Not Sleep. Mass of Sores. Eyes so Could Not See Out of Them. Got Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Sure Cure.

4400 Ulton St., Denver, Colo.—"My eczema came first with pimples and a rash on my face, then on my scalp, ears and neck. It itched so bad that I could not sleep. I was a mass of sores and my eyes were so I could not see out of them. It broke my heart to look at my face. Every bit of skin came off where the disease was. I suffered awful between the burning and itching, and whatever I treated for three months and would get better for a week and then I would be as bad as ever. I saw in the paper about Cuticura, so I sent and got some Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I had the eczema for five months before I began to use Cuticura Soap and Ointment but I got well in a short time after I started to use them. It is a sure cure as I have not been troubled with it since. You ought to see my face now. I have such a nice complexion as soft as a baby's." (Signed) Mrs. Mary Klingman, Dec. 23, 1911.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment do so much for pimples, blackheads, red, rough skin, itching, scaly scalp, dandruff, dry, thin and falling hair, chapped hands and chapped lips with painful fissures, that it is almost criminal not to use them. Sold throughout the world. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T. Boston."

*Remember—face men should use Cuticura Soap Shaving Stick, etc. Sample free.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

The Board of Public Works arranged yesterday for a hearing today at 2 p.m. of San Pedro property owners interested in the Pacific-avenue route on plans for the improvement of the proposed harbor highway. The San Pedro people will condemn the plan proposed by Special Counsel Hewitt.

A special committee on public markets reported to the Mayor yesterday that the plan to use the streets around the Plaza at this time for a free public market is ill-advised, and that it will soon have a comprehensive idea for markets throughout the city.

The Harbor Commission adopted resolutions yesterday asking various city officials and the Board of Supervisors to join in supporting the city's request for a change in harbor lines at Wilmington at a hearing before the Board of Supervisors October 9.

Two women, neither of whom is his mother, have appeared to the Superior Court to be appointed guardian of a wee, blue-eyed baby boy, who does not seem to have been consulted as to his choice of a mamma.

At the City Hall.

PUBLIC HARBOR ROAD HEARING.

WORKS BOARD TO CONFER WITH SAN PEDRO OWNERS.

Will Discuss Provisions of Special Counsel Hewitt's Recommendations Today and Plans Favored by Property Owners Directly Interested in the Financial Aspects.

The Board of Public Works will give a hearing at 2 o'clock this afternoon to representatives of the San Pedro property owners directly interested in the proposed improvement of the Pacific-avenue route to the harbor frontage.

The property owners will be represented by a committee composed of Clyde C. Johnston, C. F. Waite and E. N. Warr, but it is probable there will be numerous others there from the harbor town to urge more rapid progress towards the construction of a highway to the harbor.

The recommendations of Special Counsel Hewitt will be especially considered, and the San Pedro people will demand that these be eliminated and that the amount of $52,000 which the city proposes to pay as its portion of the cost of paving be applied to the entire district, instead of being used on one section alone.

Johnston stated yesterday that the committee will insist on knowing just what the Board of Public Works intends to do about the auxiliary harbor road, and would not be put out with any vague statements. He declares that the property owners have been ready to act, but have been prevented from securing easements because of city officials' delays.

We shall insist tomorrow on knowing just what is expected of the Board of Public Works," said Johnston, "and if we cannot get satisfaction from that body we shall appeal to the Mayor. We will not for a moment consider the Hewitt provisions, as we understand them, and we have the statements of members of the Board of Public Works that they interpret the recommendations the same as we have done. The inference is so evident that we do not believe the board will stand for such a plan, but we want to know exactly what to expect."

REPORT ON MARKETS.

PLAZA MOVE ILL ADVISED.

A special committee on public markets, appointed last month by the Good Government Organization and composed of S. C. Graham, Dr. Shriver, Gibbons and George Baker Anderson, sent its report to the Mayor yesterday, and stated that with a comparatively short time the committee will be prepared to submit an outline of a tentative plan for a system of public markets throughout the city.

The report states that the committee has been gathering data from other cities where public markets have been successfully operated, and has also received many suggestions from citizens who would be patrons of such markets if established in the city, and that it is believed the plans to be proposed would eliminate very large areas of the unnecessary city which now are the distribution of produce and would enable the producer to deal directly with the consumer.

"We believe that until this data is collected and digested, neither this committee nor any other body, official or otherwise, can well formulate a plan for an adequate municipal market system," says the report, and it declares that in view of the situation, the attempt to establish a market curb-stone market at the Plaza or in any portion of the business district is ill-advised and cannot be regarded as a test of the utility or popularity of the public market idea in this city.

Garbage Ordinance Unchanged.

It is a restraint of trade for the city to prohibit the hauling of garbage through the streets," G. B. Turk and W. C. Green, who have hog farms at Vernon, declare that it is, and have filed a complaint against the city on the grounds that the ordinance on this subject is unreasonable and prevents them conducting their business.

The Board of Public Works recommended a change in the ordinance, by the Legislation Committee of the City Council yesterday decided to file the recommendation and there will be no change in the ordinance.

Two Important Contracts.

It is expected by the Board of Public Works that important progress will be made on harbor development by action taken during the coming month. On October 7 the bids will be opened for the construction of the 7500-foot wooden-pile wharf at Wilmington and the contract for the 2500-foot concrete wharf at Municipal Dock No. 1, on the Huntington concession, will be awarded on October 12.

Timms Point Payments.

President Hubbard of the Board of Public Works yesterday afternoon signed the warrants for the city's payment of awards on the Timms Point property that is wanted for municipal warehouse purposes. There are fifteen parcels of land involved and the total award is $351,724. This goes to the Superior Court for distribution among the claimants.

Reorganization Wanted.

The Housing Commission yesterday filed with the City Clerk a communication to the City Council stating that as the housing expert has assigned the commission believes it would be better not to fill this position, but to abolish it and reorganize the office positions by creating the position of woman inspector and securing the full time of a stenographer-typewriter and clerk. The commission asks that the salaries of inspectors be raised so as to provide $80 per month for the first year of service; $90 per month for the second year and $100 per month for the third and each additional year.

Inspects Proposed Route.

Members of the Harbor Commission yesterday inspected the proposed route along Santa Fe avenue for the freight route of the prospective municipal railroad. They concurred that it would be impracticable to use San Pedro street for the bulk of the freight traffic which it is hoped to develop, but that this street should be kept free for passenger traffic.

Mission Road Improvement.

The Streets and Boulevards Committee of the Council decided yesterday to recommend to the Council the adoption of the plans of City Engineer Hamlin for the improvement of Mission road. The section from Aliso street to Macy street is to be left for separate proceedings, as it is probable various streets in the vicinity will be desired. From Gallardo street to Baldwin street the full width is to be paved, and from Baldwin street to the northerly city limits the plan provides for a twenty-foot strip of paving, to connect with the Huntington drive.

Harbor Line Hearing.

Lieut.-Col. McKinstry has set October 9 as the date for the hearing on the city's petition for the change of harbor lines at Wilmington to conform to the Goodrich plans for docks and slips on the inner harbor, and to which the Banning Company has made protest. The Harbor Commission adopted resolutions yesterday asking various city officials and the Board of Supervisors to join in supporting the city's request for a change in harbor lines at Wilmington at a hearing before the Board of Supervisors October 9.

City Hall Briefs.

The City Attorney was instructed by the Legislation Committee of the Council yesterday to prepare a drainage showing the substitution of iron railings instead of fire walls on the fronts of class A structures more than 100 feet high.

A new schedule for taxation of vehicles used in hauling commodities was recommended by the Legislation Committee of the Council at its meeting yesterday. This would place a tax of $2.50 a year on one-horse vehicles, $5 on two-horse vehicles, and $10 on more than two-horse vehicles and automobiles.

The Park Commission asked yesterday that the City Council at once advertise for bids for furnishing 15,000 gallons of road oil for use in oiling roads in Griffith park, and to be paid out of the appropriations.

President Hubbard of the Board of Public Works signed the warrants yesterday for the payment of the city's share of the cost of constructing the county highway running a portion of the way through the Spearhead Strip.

At the Courthouse.

HIS PREFERENCE NOT CONSIDERED.

WOMEN GO TO COURT TO OBTAIN WEE BABY BOY.

One Declares She Has Consent of Child's Mother to Rear Him—No Manifestations of Amity When Hired Meet in Courtroom—Child a Mystery.

Mrs. Louise K. Clegg years to call baby Eugene Green her own. Mrs. D. Grove says she has the written consent of Eugene's mother to raise him and declares he belongs to her. Both women have filed petitions for adoption, and they will line up tomorrow in the Juvenile Court in a case that might worried King Solomon.

Mrs. Grove declared yesterday she is not acquainted with Mrs. Clegg and intimated she does not care to meet her. They encountered in the Juvenile Court and passed swift judgment on each other. Baby Eugene, who is a little more than a year old, knows only Mrs. Clegg, who has been his foster mother since he was a tiny infant.

As she fondled Eugene yesterday she called him "dear, sweet boy." Mrs. Clegg also looked with eyes of love at the fair-haired babe, but the date of the trial, Judge Wilbur continued the case. "Bell was recently released from the County Jail on his own recognizance, after three months."

CASH OFFER. A cash offer of $58,000 has been made the trustees of the First Church of the United Brethren in Christ, Los Angeles, for a lot the church owns at Hope and Pico streets. A petition was filed yesterday for permission of the court to sell the property, improved with a small house. The lot, the petition states, is adapted to business purposes, and, as the church has two other lots, it can dispense with this piece. The sale has been approved by the board of trustees.

NAME COMMISSIONER.

FORCLOSURE OF PLANT.

Judge Willis granted a decree of foreclosure, yesterday on the property of the Glendale Consolidated Water Company and appointed A. R. Kilgore commissioner to sell the property, valued at $150,000. The proceedings were brought by the Title Guarantee and Trust Company, a trustee for bondholders, to foreclose on a trust deed secured by $355,000 in bonds of the company, on which is due and unpaid interest amounting to $15,000.

Ralph Rogers, general manager, admitted in court yesterday that the company is insolvent. It was organized in 1908 and supplied a large territory with water. It was reported yesterday that Glendale, Tropic and South Pasadena will endeavor to bid in the property for the purpose of converting the works into a municipal water system.

A claim of $10,000 for the trustees and $10,000 attorney's fees was reduced by Judge Willis to $5000 in each case. The trust company was represented by Sergeant and Cook.

A CURIOUS MIX-UP.

NAMES IN DAMAGE SUIT.

A $25,000 suit for damages brought by Chow Lank, husband and administrator of the estate of Gans Hoy, who was fatally injured by a Southern Pacific engine on Alameda street January 1, last, is the first action the company has been called on to defend in which the litigant is a citizen of the Flower Kingdom. Besides this fact the case presents a curious array of names.

Chow Lank states in his complaint that Mrs. Gans Hoy left three children, namely: Chou Lin Sane, Chou Lin Him and Chou Lin Wong. Attorney Gornier, counsel for the Southern Pacific, is preparing for an interesting trial. Practically all of the evidence on the plaintiff's part will be repeated by an interpreter, who will be handled by Attorney Shaw and Stewart and E. E. Noon. Judge Dowling is slated to try the suit in Extra Session.

OLD RECOLLECTIONS.

SUIT COVERS TWO DECADES.

A boundary line said to have once existed in the form of a fence, the subject of an interesting case in Judge Buckle's court. The land was owned by Mrs. Sempramis Miller, and twenty-two years ago she sold a part. This part, now held by Molly and Frances Rheude and Robin M. Smith, defendants, who are contesting a suit to quiet title to the relinquishment of the fence, which they claim is a portion of the original purchase.

This strip is valued at $45 a front foot, and Mrs. Miller alleges it belongs to her and never formed a part of the original sale. Many old-timers have been summoned as witnesses and experts to their recollection of the boundary line. A motion for a non-suit was denied by the court yesterday.

PASS EN ROUTE.

MOTHER'S FRANTIC TRIP.

Harold Malek, 2 years old, was forcibly taken from his mother by his father, L. C. Malek, and hurried to the County Jail last Monday night. Judge Monroe for having disobeyed an order of the court, and he was to remain there until the child was returned.

Malek gave the destination of his son to the court. Mrs. Malek set out for Petaluma. Meantime, the grandmother heard of the court's action and left for this city with Harold. The women passed each other on Court.

Harold was taken into the Juvenile Court yesterday and placed in the custody of the grandmother at a local hotel until the return of Mrs. Malek. Malek was released.

FIGHT AT END.

COUNCIL FULFILLS PROMISE.

A struggle of several years' standing, the case of Lakeshore avenue and the filing yesterday of an interlocutory judgment for the widening of the avenue between Bimont and Kent streets by Deputy City Attorney Haas.

It appears that a former City Council committee considered a plan of Lakeshore avenue for the purpose of putting in Echo Park lake. The city was promised a widening of the avenue between Bimont and Kent streets by Deputy City Attorney Haas.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.

NAMES WOMAN. Mrs. Zella J. Baer in a complaint filed yesterday in the County Superior Court, Los Angeles, and mentions residences on Fifty-first place and Denker avenue, where she alleges Baer met her. She asks for a writ of habeas corpus, and Mrs. Baer asks $125 a month for the support of herself and child. The court is asked to issue a citation compelling Baer to appear in court to show cause why he should not pay this sum and take care of the child.

OUT OF BUSINESS. The Mesa Land Company filed a petition yesterday for voluntary dissolution. It owned 332 shares of a total 450 were represented, a resolution was adopted, in which it was stated it is deemed advisable to dissolve the company. There are no debts and its assets are in cash. The officers and directors are William Miller, president; Harry B. Chandler, secretary; Charles J. Andrews, Charles McKenzie and S. J. White.

FAILS TO APPEAR. The whereabouts of Horace Bell, said to be a member of a well-known family, became an issue in the Juvenile Court yesterday. He is charged with having contributed to the dependency of Ethel Baker, aged 17, and a jury was about to be called to try the case at his request. Bell did not appear, and according to his attorney, Bell was mistaken as to the date of the trial. Judge Wilbur continued the case. "Bell was recently released from the County Jail on his own recognizance, after three months."

CASH OFFER. A cash offer of $58,000 has been made the trustees of the First Church of the United Brethren in Christ, Los Angeles, for a lot the church owns at Hope and Pico streets. TO QUIET TITLE. A suit to quiet title, filed by the Pacific Land Company, is directed against 249 lot owners in the Redondo tract. The company alleges that at the time the Los Angeles Securities Company deeded the lots it did not own the property. Involved in the action are 233 lots.

ON PROBATION. The previous good character of Thomas Mangarosa and Fenton Burdick saved them yesterday from a penitentiary sentence for grand larceny. They were ordered to enable them to join the 101 Ranch as motion-picture men, and were employed there when arrested. They were on probation for three years, suspending sentence.

INCORPORATIONS. Southern California Chemical Company, Incorporated, Walter L. Jordan, L. M. Chapman, H. C. Reitz, J. K. Smith, Henry F. Thompson, Jr., and others, $100,000, subscribed $500; Acero Manufacturing Company, Incorporated, Edward H. Pendleton, H. Drew, H. B. Tait, W. L. Connor, L. A. SENATE INQUIRY NEARING CLOSE. STATE PAYS US. HALF MILLION.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE MAY PROVE A SURPRISE. HELPS HIRE TEACHERS IN THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Popular Belief as to Mexican Situation. In So Far as It Relates to Sources of Rebel Supplies. Will Have No Effect on the Senators' Findings.

Lack of positive testimony showing that the Mexican rebels have received assistance from persons living within or owing allegiance to the United States may bring the Senate committee investigation in Los Angeles to an abrupt close, Senator Smith, chairman of the committee, said last night that the report of his committee would conform to the facts as they are found to exist, whether those facts conformed to the generally accepted belief or not.

The report of the committee may not be in accord with the generally accepted belief as to the Mexican situation, Senator Smith said, "but that fact will not influence the committee in preparing its report. So far as the members of the committee are concerned, we do not care whether it develops that persons and firms within the United States have given financial aid to the Mexican rebels, or not. Should we believe from the testimony that reports of this kind have been largely exaggerated, and that as a matter of fact the revolution has been financed in Mexico, we would promptly make that report. As to the aid on the Mexican side, it may end abruptly at any time."

Following a lengthy conference with ex-Gov. Flores, a former Diaz official, and C. J. Chavez, also intimately acquainted with the present situation in the Latin republic, the members of the committee yesterday afternoon information had been divulged other than to say that it materially enlightened them on numerous points, notably on the Mexican side, which they thought to do with the reported Japanese activities in that quarter was denied.

The avowed intention of the United States government to use the evidence obtained through the Senate committee for the purpose of regulating remedial legislation, and not for purposes of prosecution, evidently is not having all the effect hoped for by the committee. The members yesterday admitted that much of the testimony offered by so-called important witnesses, dealt largely with matters auxiliary to the questions at issue.

They cannot give out the information divulged by these witnesses because we can fill all of them with any possible witnesses who are in a position to testify in the present investigation," Senator Smith said. "We want to get at this matter in the right way and are anxious to talk to all persons, Mexican or other, who can throw light on the subject under investigation."

The members of the committee yesterday admitted during their conversation that the gist of the testimony here has differed materially from that taken at El Paso. The committee came to Los Angeles with the impression strong within them that outside power has played an important part in financing the present revolution. The major part of the testimony of the committee has been directly at variance with that belief.

There is a rumor to the effect that firms engaged in the sale and distribution of munitions and explosives are preparing a list of the various quantities of these commodities shipped to the United States since the break of hostilities, with the purpose of submitting it to the committee. Such a report, if properly attested, may have an important bearing on the ultimate decision of the committee as shown by its report to the United States Senate.

LEAVES NO STONE TURNED.

Beaten in Courts in Effort to Retain Office, Swedish Vice-Consul Appeals to Minister.

Milton Carlson, suspended from his office as Royal Swedish Vice-Consul and beaten in the courts in his effort to retain the books and insignia, made appeal yesterday through his attorney, McGowan and Haas, to Count J. J. A. Ehrensvard, Minister of Foreign Affairs for the kingdom of Sweden.

Carlson's protest embodies all the details of the controversy, he said, and asks that he be reinstated in office under the Swedish consul or discontinue an unpaid vice-consul be suspended by his immediate superior, but his case must be taken to the Minister of Foreign Affairs, who will give him a chance to defend himself. Consul Matson, stationed at San Francisco, recently suspended Carlson, "I am not a bankrupt, and my charges have been preferred against my character as a citizen," said Carlson. "The ordinances give these as two causes of suspension, adding that that procedure may take place if other cogent reasons arise." Matson's action must come under the last cause, but he has refused to state those "cogent reasons" to me.

ATTITUDE OF THIS JOURNAL.
 For the country and the flag.
 For the Constitution and the courts.
 For upholding the honor of the army and navy.
 For orderly liberty under law.
 For an Ocean-to-Ocean highway.
 For true freedom in the industries.
 For unshackled labor, nation-wide.
 For the just rights of the unrepresented minor.
 For labor's protection, reward and respect.
 For the honest and its safeguarding.
 For social order and business solidarity.
 For world-wide peace with honor.
 For security in the state.
 For the old cause and the Old Guard.

FOR TAFT AND SHERMAN
 And against their allied antagonists.
 Against political fraud, fraud and fraud.
 Against the Big Game and the Big Stick.
 Against the new-fangled judicial revolt.
 Against free trade and free soap.
 Against union conspiracy and violence.
 Against the so-called closed shop.
 Against industrial discrimination and favoritism.
 Against the unorganized labor mob.
 Against the bomb, bayonet and bloodshed.
 Against strikes, picketing and violence.
 Against "progressive" backwash.
 Against treason and the red flag.

GROWTH.
 Because Eve was made from one of Adam's ribs, does it follow that the suffragist cause must always remain a side issue?

OUT OF PLACE.
 Truly it must have been a great shock to officers of the law to discover a quantity of exhilarating liquors within the quarters of a fashionable club at Riverside. Of course the only thing permissible or appropriate in the way of refreshments at such an institution would be a clubhouse sandwich.

NOT A VOTE.
 The southern Democrats are patting Roosevelt on the back, but they will not vote for him. Their attitude toward the college is not unlike that of Louis the Eleventh in his last hours toward the prelates of France.

"Honor the church, my son," said he—"but give it nothing."

NOTHING SAVED.
 The Supreme Court of California has decided that trial judges may, in their discretion, halt the propounding of useless questions to veniremen. No doubt the judges who take advantage of this will soon find that it is easier to let the lawyers ask the other fellow a fool question or two than to have them talk back to the court.

A PACEMAKER.
 The highway engineer of Los Angeles county has gone East to attend a good-roads congress and while away he will make a special study of county roads in eastern cities. The chances are that he will find few counties so well developed in this particular as his own. This county has over 300 miles of paved boulevards and it is safe to say that it could have no better asset.

GOING UP.
 The Emperor of Germany is jealous of the United States because it takes away every good actor that the Fatherland develops. This is accomplished by the magic of dollars. William complains that the American managers will pay an actor three times as much as he can afford to pay his Imperial Chancellor. That is worth three times as much as a chancellor and then some.

A GREAT FIELD.
 The Santa Fe is about to sell its short line in Sonora and some of its Arizona property to the Southern Pacific. This is good business. Col. Epes Randolph has developed transportation in the State of Arizona and in several States of Northern Mexico to a remarkable degree. It is reasonable to suppose that, so far as Mexico is concerned, it will be far more practical to have the American railroad service and interest directed from a single source.

MEXICO AND CANADA.
 Mexico, for some unexplained reason, has a commercial growth against Canada. In a report made by the Canadian government it is stated that for the year 1911 the total foreign trade of Mexico amounted to $243,458,851 gold, which was a gain of $16,000,000 over the preceding year. There was a gain in imports from Germany of about $2,000,000, or 16 per cent. There was a gain from Great Britain of 6-10 per cent. The losses in imports from the United States were 5 per cent., and from France 6 per cent. The losses from Canada were 75 per cent.

A FATHERLESS FROG.
 Parthenogenesis has scored a triumph; let the round world rejoice and all that therein is! Science has produced a chemical frog. It has dispensed with the male, but not with the female; the eternal feminine of freedom will also have to be eliminated before chemical creation of frog life by man can be called a complete success.

Yet, on second and soberer thoughts, why this paean of triumph, this banging of scientific drums, this yelling of chemical "eureka's"? Supposing the Rockefeller Institute of Research should finally manufacture the complete frog, where the advantage? At present the world is not suffering from any dearth of pollywogs. Can Prof. Jacques Loeb produce a better frog's chorus than did Aristophanes? Can he give us a more fascinating nursery rhyme than "A frog, he would a-wooing go"? Can he improve on Mark Twain's "Jumping Frog"? Can he produce a frog with a larger chest expansion or a longer hop? In a word, are we any nearer the age of super-frog? That is the question.

NOTHING IN HIS POCKET.
 The "Progressive" press is given to iteration and reiteration of the accusation of Col. Roosevelt that President Taft is a "pickpocket" who "stole" the Presidential nomination from him at Chicago. But it does not appear that the Big Bull Moose leader had any valuables in the pocket which he says was "picked."

The facts are that if every one of the delegates claimed by Roosevelt to have been "stolen" from him by Taft had been taken away from the President and given to the colonel, while it might have defeated the nomination of the former, it would not have secured the nomination of the ambitious Big Bull Moose.

It is true that President Taft was nominated in part by the votes of delegates from States which have not for many years given a Republican majority and in some of which the Republican party has been kinked and bulldozed and counted out of existence. But according to representation to those States is a practice which has prevailed in Republican National Conventions since 1868. Possibly it may not be a wise or a just practice, but as Abraham Lincoln once said, "Everybody is wiser than anybody," and in politics, as in medicine, it may be said that "while there is life there is hope." Missouri cast her electoral vote for Taft in 1908. Maryland, in a vote of 238,531, came within 605 votes of giving her electoral vote to Taft. In Kentucky a change of 1 in 100 would have given that State to Taft. Delaware went for Taft by 2000, and West Virginia gave Taft 26,451 plurality. At the last State election Tennessee went Republican.

All these five Southern States were at one time Democratic and no man is able to say that the other ten Southern States may not become Republican by the color line being abolished and the Democrats discontinuing the suppression of the colored vote by violence and fraud. If admission to representation in Republican national conventions will aid to bring about such a desirable result, who shall say that the policy of according such representation is an unwise policy.

Col. Roosevelt and his following cannot win votes from the intelligent American people by persisting in the unwarranted and babyish whimpering that he might, could, would or should have been nominated at the Chicago National Republican Convention—if he had only had votes enough. The third-termers had got to stand upon the proposition that "nice customs curtesy to great kings," that he is a great king who wants to rule a great kingdom; that it doesn't make any difference whether the people want him or not, he wants himself, and that what he wants he will have, though he wade to his saddle girths in treachery and falsehood to get it.

NEW MEXICO'S BOOK.

A book which costs $10 the copy may either protect the author from the public or the public from the author, and no book should be published for either purpose. A history above all printed works is of the people, for the people, and ought to be given to the people. It is lamentable, therefore, that a book of authority and charm should be limited to an edition of 500 copies and sold at an extravagant price. Such is the case with the remarkable "History of New Mexico," written by Benjamin M. Read in the Spanish, translated into English under the direction of the author by Eleuterio Baca de Las Vegas and printed by the New Mexican Printing Company of Santa Fe. It will be noted that the writer would appear to be Spanish with an English name, while the man who gives us the delightful English translation is himself of Spanish extraction. Mr. Read had exceptional qualifications for his difficult, yet pleasant, task in becoming the historian of New Mexico, and the result of his years of research under the rare advantages he possessed in the production of a volume of no much worth that the demand for a large and cheap edition must certainly be answered in the near future. While it might be regarded as too difficult for younger school children, it is undoubtedly of a character to make it at once a romantic and a profoundly instructive textbook for high-school and normal-school students in that State.

It is likely that no one of the United States offers so much of fact and speculation for historical material as New Mexico, with its rich mythological hypothesis, its intimate relation to the early conquests, its close link to the discovery of the Western Hemisphere and its boast of a capital which is indisputably the second oldest city in America. By reason of its first language and first religion the earlier records of the State naturally were sacredly guarded by the Spanish fathers. To these, as far as they exist, Mr. Read had ready access as precursor of the college of the Christian Brothers of Santa Fe as long ago as 1874. Bringing to bear upon his long years of study a great love for his task, as well as a keen and refreshing frankness and appreciation of truth, the author added to his natural qualifications a complete knowledge of all other efforts to enshrine the interesting history of his State in words. His work, therefore, bears the stamp of that authority which lies in truth.

If it needed any further recommendation than its opening salutation, wherein the author in a single paragraph makes a remarkable summary of what the history includes, that commendation would lie in the hearty approval of former Gov. L. Bradford Prince, the president of the New Mexican Historical Society. This gentle and learned dean of New Mexican letters has devoted the mature years of a long and honorable life toward kindred research, and his sincere appreciation and approval of Mr. Read's work gives it the immediate stamp of high value. The present archbishop of Santa Fe has likewise been pleased to commend with favor upon the sober judgment and good conscience of the work and to speak of it as a splendid monument, more durable than granite shafts. It is very evident, therefore, that the new State is fortunate to begin its fresh era with such a work as the foundation of the fair record it is yet to achieve.

While space could not permit more than a general comment on the work of this character, extending over 800 delightful pages, we cannot refrain from expressing our appreciation of the illuminating and delightful chapters on the Aztecs and their empire, as well as the origin and civilization of other indigenous races.

THE SCIENTIST'S PROGRESS.

The British Association, which represents modern Science with a capital S, has been hurling epoch-making discoveries of late, and Prof. Schaefer's address on "Life" has been causing no end of a flutter. That life is ultimately, and that soon, to be entirely created through chemistry was his main assertion, and particularly did he emphasize the fact that we can no longer draw a plain dividing line between the living and the dead, the inanimate and the animate, the organic and the inorganic.

He recalls the fact that boiled water hermetically sealed in a sterilized bottle will show signs of life in the course of time, that apparently dead seeds blossom forth into wonderful life, that, indeed, most of the ordinary objects which we have been wont to regard as emphatically not living are in fact merely in a state of suspended animation.

Which of course is all highly interesting, but—what then? Are we really expected to wax jubilant at the possibility of chemically-created men? Is this a dark design to make women superfluous? And as for informing us that there is no such thing as a lifeless object—well, the spiritualists have been busy making our tables and chairs speak for years.

Prof. Elliot Smith goes on to assure us that he not only believes that men evolved from monkeys, but that monkeys evolved from squirrels. While still another professor has concentrated his great mind on the problem of blushing, which he finds is "due to the diminished action of the muscular tissue of the arteries" and not necessarily a sign of modesty, or anything else interesting! It can, in fact, be cured like other simple ailments. Can it, we wonder, also be caught like, say, measles? If so, there is still hope for some of us.

We are inclined to prefer Sir James Orlinon Brown's ardent belief in love matches and love at first sight. We may be old-fashioned, but somehow the eugenicists and the scientists leave us cold.

PROGRESSIVE-DEMOCRATIC COMBINATION.

There is one man in the world of whose character and qualifications the Big Bull Moose is profoundly ignorant, and that man is himself. "Self-reflection," says Gracius, "is the school of wisdom." It is a school that Col. Roosevelt has never attended. "Self-knowledge is the beginning of self-improvement. There be some men whose humors are so monstrous that they are always under the influence of one or the other of them. They are torn asunder by disharmony and get involved in contradictory obligations. Such excesses not only destroy firmness of will; all power of judgment gets lost, desire and knowledge pulling in opposite directions."

Col. Roosevelt desires—beyond and above everything else on earth or in heaven he desires—a third term in the Presidency. To aid in accomplishing this desire he has been willing to sacrifice—he has sacrificed his truth, his manliness, his honor, his loyalty to friendship, his fidelity to principle and the good opinion of his countrymen.

No man stood higher in the estimate of the American people than did Theodore Roosevelt when he returned from Europe. He came out of the Spanish War with the reputation of a brave and successful soldier. As Governor of the greatest State in the Union he left no smirch upon his record. His perversity as President in connection with the steel and harvest trusts and the use of campaign funds was not generally known, and doubtless never would have been known if it had not been for his third-term candidacy. He was credited with the successful—even if somewhat questionable—acts which resulted in the independence of Panama and the acquisition of the canal zone. He returned from Europe where he had been the guest of sovereigns and the adviser of ministers of state.

Then he had developed his personality to the highest point, to the full round of his accomplishments and his excellencies, and then, like Lucifer, son of the morning, lured by ambition, over the battlements of heaven he went.

"In vain with tears his loss he may deplore, In vain look back on what he was before, He sets like stars that fall to rise no more." Col. Roosevelt knows, he must know by this time—even his own exaggerated estimate of himself cannot prevent him from knowing—that he has no more chance of being elected President of the United States than of being chosen Shah of Persia.

The slender chance that Roosevelt had of success was to have loosened the solid South from its adherence to Democracy and harnessed it to his chariot. In this he has utterly and ignominiously failed. There are ten Southern States casting 114 electoral votes, in which so far it does not appear that any Roosevelt electoral tickets have been nominated or any Roosevelt meetings have been held. The colonel and Gov. Johnson are leaving the country south of Mason and Dixon's line out of their oratorical circuit.

Added to the States in which there is practically no Roosevelt ticket running, there are fourteen States casting 155 electoral votes which two years ago elected Democratic State officials, and there are six States casting 121 electoral votes which two years ago went Republican by a narrow margin. If Wilson can carry by a plurality the States which elected Democratic Governors two years ago he will be elected. If he can carry by a plurality the States which two years ago went Republican by small pluralities he will be elected. If Taft carries seventeen States which would be as certain for the Republican party under normal conditions as the eleven States are certain for Democracy, he would still fall of election, unless he held the States which barely went Republican two years ago and recovered some of those which went Democratic by a small plurality.

Roosevelt knows this. His supporters in this State know it. Their expectation is to elect Wilson and to claim rewards from a Democratic administration. One of the straws showing which way the wind blows was the invitation of the Sacramento convention to William J. Bryan to address it.

UNCLE WALT.

The Poet Philosopher.

Oh, often, as I dance and sing and gam, bel up and down, I wish this country had a king, with scepter, throne and crown. A monarch, when he takes his throne, is settled there for life; he lets the campaign graft alone, the whooping and the strife. The stately monarch never appears on platforms here and there, the dust of travel in his ears, and clinders in his hair. He isn't called on to defend his course to unwashed dubs, antagonists he doesn't make to Ananias Clubs. He doesn't make the welkin throb, but in his throne-room sits and learns the fine points of his job, while others throw the fits. Serene, remote, he does his stunt, attends his kingly grind; no noisy grand stand is in front, no bleachers are behind. He doesn't have to promise things he can't do, or come when his self-assurance is most impregnable. He turns to jeer at the pack—and that day sees a coy widow proudly exhibiting his brush to the hunt! 'Tis then that he pays. If we are broken in to double harness in our youth, it is no very harassing matter, but oh, to wear it for the first time in the forties.

We have all met those pitiable objects that were the gay, debonaire, uncatchable beaux of mamma's day. Chide not the bachelor for assisting race suicide. You may demand that he marry, but you cannot insure that he becomes a father. On the contrary, for the spinster has long since decided, while still in her teens, that there shall be no motherhood for her. Why, therefore, expect the bachelor to stuff himself with a woman who is more than capable of maintaining herself—unincumbered? Moreover, one that will assuredly find him twice as interesting if he remains unattached?

WALT MASON.

THE COST OF HIGH LIVING.

BY WALTER J. BALLARD.

The high cost of living is one thing and the cost of high living is another. The following summary of the money spent yearly by the American people for extras:

Intoxicating liquors	$2,000,000,000
Tobacco	1,200,000,000
Jewelry	800,000,000
Automobiles	500,000,000
Confectionery	200,000,000
Soft drinks	120,000,000
Ten and coffee	100,000,000
Military	90,000,000
Patent medicines	80,000,000
Cheating gum	12,000,000

Total annual outlay for these few items $5,103,000,000. Of course this great sum of money is not lost, as a very large part of it goes back to the people for wages.

[Washington Star:] "Are you interested in the uplift?"
 "Not as much as I'd like to be," replied Senator Sorghum. "It keeps me too busy trying to avoid being thrown down."

INDISPENSABLE BACHELORS.

BY ALMA WHITAKER.

What a lot of lovable hypocrites these bachelors and spinsters are, to be sure! Here we have my esteemed contemporaries, Harry Bowling, a confessed bachelor; Alice Wheatley, spinster, and Rhodes Walker, unclassified, but obviously unattached, all airing their opinions on the subject of taxing the bachelor in this very column—and all of them shameless poseurs. And they know it.

The only person who is qualified to speak with authority on this burning question is the matron, who was a spinster herself once and well versed in the ways of bachelordom. Not so the married man—indeed, I have a shrewd suspicion that it was from this source that the suggestion to tax the bachelor first emanated.

The confessed bachelor, you will remember, would have us believe that he and his kind remain unattached largely from a matter of purest sentiment, martyrs of loyalty to an early love. He drew up a pathetic little picture of lifelong loneliness, with periodical heartaches whenever a happy family crossed his path. But, he asked us earnestly, what sort of a husband could he be expected to make, while his heart was perchance buried with another in some daisy-covered grave?

The Walker person hinted at dark reasons which bespoke a great renunciation, which he somehow managed to confuse with women's time-honored lack of humor and logic.

The spinster, on the other hand, held that bachelors are the personification of a selfishness, shirked of just responsibilities, cowards, vulgar philanthropists and a menace to the community. He should, she thought, be taxed out of existence.

Hypocrites all of them! The truth is that your average adult bachelor would be only too glad if the State would make up his mind for him and choose him a wife. With the certainty of someone else to shoulder the blame if things went wrong he would gladly take the plunge. Failing that, nothing would lend him more genuine distinction than a tax, which he would pay ostentatiously with the same gusto that old families pay for their crests. The chances are he would wear it on his note paper in the selfsame way.

The spinster, on the contrary, would weep bitter tears were the indispensable bachelors taxed out of existence, no less so than the society matron who already finds the burden of supplying enough bachelors to go round at her entertainments one that grows heavier as years go on. Here in Southern California the bachelor is all too rare—as Gwendoline remarked only last week, "My dear! They are all either cubs or married—and most of the cubs are married, too!"

It would make you shudder if you knew the devices the modern hostess employs to capture the essential presence of the recalcitrant bachelor, for what sort of a ball would it be, I should like to know, where all the partners were married? Horrid! No spinster will acknowledge, there is nothing quite so dreary as another woman's husband. The matrons, too, greatly prefer bachelors.

With bachelors forced to marry, the spinster would lose her finest sport. Angling for bachelors, as any honest spinster will admit, is one of the best games going, and it is the angling itself, not the ultimate possession, that makes for such keen zest. Selecting the bait, thoughtfully throwing the line, watching for the first nibble, the thrill of the bite! Then the pure joy of playing your fish and the ultimate landing of the prize; his curious and amusing contortions as he flounders on dry land. But, after showing him round, there is little joy in losing a trophy of this kind. The majority of us are quite satisfied that he should provide edible sustenance for the family.

Wherefore the necessity for there being "as many good fish in the sea as ever came out of it" is paramount, and whenever women have the vote, no tax on bachelors will ever materialize. Why, messieurs, it would be like the enormity of trailing—no, thank you, the fly is good enough for us.

As to responsibilities, no one can accuse the eligible bachelor of having an easy time of it. Full well he knows that his very bachelorhood adds to his very community, in the service of womankind in general so that he is not pledged to one. He can make seven girls a week happy as a bachelor, while he could barely amuse one as a benefactor.

Neither is he a coward. On the contrary he takes the most daring risks and, like the lion tamer, is over fond of putting his head in the lion's mouth.

The bachelor may be likened to the fox with the pack at his heels, and like the fox, it is noteworthy that, if he can come scatheless through the first two encounters, he is comparatively immune through middle life. But he, too, has his dangers and it comes and it comes when his self-assurance is most impregnable. He turns to jeer at the pack—and that day sees a coy widow proudly exhibiting his brush to the hunt! 'Tis then that he pays. If we are broken in to double harness in our youth, it is no very harassing matter, but oh, to wear it for the first time in the forties.

We have all met those pitiable objects that were the gay, debonaire, uncatchable beaux of mamma's day. Chide not the bachelor for assisting race suicide. You may demand that he marry, but you cannot insure that he becomes a father. On the contrary, for the spinster has long since decided, while still in her teens, that there shall be no motherhood for her. Why, therefore, expect the bachelor to stuff himself with a woman who is more than capable of maintaining herself—unincumbered? Moreover, one that will assuredly find him twice as interesting if he remains unattached?

No, of course we cannot tax the bachelor. It would be like taxing Hope and, but for Hope, as all the world knows, life would be unendurable. Rather let us conserve our bachelors. They should have a close season and a pretty stiff hunting license should be enforced, which might with advantage be trebled in the case of widows and the theatrical profession.

He returned from Europe where he had been the guest of sovereigns and the adviser of ministers of state.

Then he had developed his personality to the highest point, to the full round of his accomplishments and his excellencies, and then, like Lucifer, son of the morning, lured by ambition, over the battlements of heaven he went.

"In vain with tears his loss he may deplore, In vain look back on what he was before, He sets like stars that fall to rise no more." Col. Roosevelt knows, he must know by this time—even his own exaggerated estimate of himself cannot prevent him from knowing—that he has no more chance of being elected President of the United States than of being chosen Shah of Persia.

The slender chance that Roosevelt had of success was to have loosened the solid South from its adherence to Democracy and harnessed it to his chariot. In this he has utterly and ignominiously failed. There are ten Southern States casting 114 electoral votes, in which so far it does not appear that any Roosevelt electoral tickets have been nominated or any Roosevelt meetings have been held. The colonel and Gov. Johnson are leaving the country south of Mason and Dixon's line out of their oratorical circuit.

Added to the States in which there is practically no Roosevelt ticket running, there are fourteen States casting 155 electoral votes which two years ago elected Democratic State officials, and there are six States casting 121 electoral votes which two years ago went Republican by a narrow margin. If Wilson can carry by a plurality the States which elected Democratic Governors two years ago he will be elected. If he can carry by a plurality the States which two years ago went Republican by small pluralities he will be elected. If Taft carries seventeen States which would be as certain for the Republican party under normal conditions as the eleven States are certain for Democracy, he would still fall of election, unless he held the States which barely went Republican two years ago and recovered some of those which went Democratic by a small plurality.

Roosevelt knows this. His supporters in this State know it. Their expectation is to elect Wilson and to claim rewards from a Democratic administration. One of the straws showing which way the wind blows was the invitation of the Sacramento convention to William J. Bryan to address it.

UNCLE WALT.

The Poet Philosopher.

Oh, often, as I dance and sing and gam, bel up and down, I wish this country had a king, with scepter, throne and crown. A monarch, when he takes his throne, is settled there for life; he lets the campaign graft alone, the whooping and the strife. The stately monarch never appears on platforms here and there, the dust of travel in his ears, and clinders in his hair. He isn't called on to defend his course to unwashed dubs, antagonists he doesn't make to Ananias Clubs. He doesn't make the welkin throb, but in his throne-room sits and learns the fine points of his job, while others throw the fits. Serene, remote, he does his stunt, attends his kingly grind; no noisy grand stand is in front, no bleachers are behind. He doesn't have to promise things he can't do, or come when his self-assurance is most impregnable. He turns to jeer at the pack—and that day sees a coy widow proudly exhibiting his brush to the hunt! 'Tis then that he pays. If we are broken in to double harness in our youth, it is no very harassing matter, but oh, to wear it for the first time in the forties.

We have all met those pitiable objects that were the gay, debonaire, uncatchable beaux of mamma's day. Chide not the bachelor for assisting race suicide. You may demand that he marry, but you cannot insure that he becomes a father. On the contrary, for the spinster has long since decided, while still in her teens, that there shall be no motherhood for her. Why, therefore, expect the bachelor to stuff himself with a woman who is more than capable of maintaining herself—unincumbered? Moreover, one that will assuredly find him twice as interesting if he remains unattached?

THE COST OF HIGH LIVING.

BY WALTER J. BALLARD.

The high cost of living is one thing and the cost of high living is another. The following summary of the money spent yearly by the American people for extras:

Intoxicating liquors	$2,000,000,000
Tobacco	1,200,000,000
Jewelry	800,000,000
Automobiles	500,000,000
Confectionery	200,000,000
Soft drinks	120,000,000
Ten and coffee	100,000,000
Military	90,000,000
Patent medicines	80,000,000
Cheating gum	12,000,000

Total annual outlay for these few items $5,103,000,000. Of course this great sum of money is not lost, as a very large part of it goes back to the people for wages.

[Washington Star:] "Are you interested in the uplift?"
 "Not as much as I'd like to be," replied Senator Sorghum. "It keeps me too busy trying to avoid being thrown down."

Pen Points: By the Sea.

No doubt Col. Roosevelt is against trusts. Did he not seek the Standard for $125,000?

In West Virginia they are talking Bryan for 1916. But they say they are in West Virginia.

The friends of President Taft who heard from at the polls if they were off at Sacramento.

Hy Johnson is devastating New York with speech this week.

Pen Points: By the Sea

No doubt Col. Roosevelt is against trusts. Did he not seek the Standard for $125,000?

In West Virginia they are in Bryan for 1916. But they do fear the Standard.

The friends of President Taft were heard from at the polls if they were off at Sacramento.

Hi Johnson is devastating New England with speech this week. "Onward, Christian Soldier." Hub!

Meyer Lissner is so thin-skinned that friends are not allowed to mention "C" in his presence.

And there is Senator Gates; he will get the job of Minister to Denmark when T. R. is elected President.

We are not seeing so many tight on Midway as a year ago. Has there a law passed requiring all women to wear them?

Got all of your fruit put up this And did you save the task of screwing the tops of the glass jars until father came home?

Gov. Marshall says that with the election of Wilson the political bosses will be locally killed. Don't make us laugh, lips are cracked.

A few days ago it was the best; now it is the worst. Life miserable in the East. Come West, everybody, to the sun dips into the sea.

When the women elect one of their President one of the most important positions will be that of Secretary of Cosmetics and Manicuring.

It is understood that Chancellor Dyer of the English vocabulary a weak and inefficient vehicle for the dissemination of real sentiments on the political situation.

Gov. Dix says he will be re-elected for a third term in New York. Gov. says intimates that he will do so much. Now we shall see who is boss. Mr. Dix is lining up with Dix.

When the Bull Moose candidate is feasted we look to see Jimmy Garfield, loving the example of Gen. Nogi, fall at the sword of his ancestors. Jimmy is sure enough Samurai.

The California kickers who are seeing to line up the voters against President Taft are eating out of his hand some day when they desired favors from President. What a scummy lot they are!

The charge that Gov. Marshall is a dealer of tobacco is likely to handicap the woman suffrage States. The fact that he wears silk pajamas, ought to help him out in some of the strong Democratic ballistics.

We very much doubt the wisdom of dancing at the night school, as it has been decreed in some of the eastern cities if dancing must be a part of the curriculum let it occur in the daytime. The ought to be no need of a diagram.

If Congress were in session and the bill under discussion the people who are trying to hamstring President Taft at Sacramento would be imploring him to "save California's industries!" What ungrateful bunch of political kickers!

The newspapers that gave the impression there was to be a farm for the state of the restoration of the public lands in the Valley did a gross injustice to local government authorities and the dupes who stood in line for an entry when they had not complied with the requisite of an ability to enter it by being visited the land.

RECIPES.

BY HARRY F. BOWLING.

If you want a receipt for the latest in stonitry, Known to the faithful as bull Moose.

Use as a stock some old-time stonitry. Simmer it gently in Socialist juices. Flavor with slang full of ginger and business.

Chop in some fragments of Roosevelt's Marx.

Grease with the new Standard Oil happiness.

Pepper with personal, caustic remarks. Take a big stick, as intending to repeat.

Beat up some bones that Bill picked bare.

Wrap in a rusty red bandanna handkerchief.

Start it to working with lots of bull when it has risen to sassyous broil.

Rich with the odor of Limburger cheese.

Boil it up brisily and strain off the bull. And the scum of the mixture is known as Bull Moose.

Do you want a receipt for that strange normality.

Called the Progressive. Great thinking or game?

Steal the backyard, without further notice.

Owned by a party of workmen.

PRISON REFORM IS CRITICISED.

Gov. Hunt Turns Loose a Life-Termer.

Phoenix Police Chief Is Past Danger Point.

No Strike in the Arizona Copper Mines.

(Special Correspondence of the Times.)

PHOENIX (Ariz.) Sept. 25.—Chief A. J. Moore and Policeman Harrison Williams are now declared by attending surgeons to be on the way toward recovery, septic poisoning from their knife wounds having been avoided. Moore was taken to his home today and for the first time was advised that Scott Price had been accidentally killed by a bullet from Moore's pistol. Rewards aggregating $800 have been offered for the apprehension of the Mexican knife men, three in number, the State and city joining in the offer. Local Mexican business men have added a reward of their own and are helping in every way toward the apprehension of the fugitives.

MOORE IS BETTER.

More criticism of the State policy of "prison reform" has been occasioned by the parole of Ed Fendren, sentenced to life imprisonment three years ago for murder. It is told that Fendren is old and is ill, that he has sold a mine for a comfortable sum and that he expects to move to Texas. Fendren's victim was a man of decided unpopularity in the community, the crime was one of rare ferocity. Fendren and an associate lay in ambush beside a trail in Superior district and assassinated A. J. Dugas, a Phoenix lawyer, and his bodyguard, George Dittmore. When Dugas fell at the first volley, Dittmore ran, but was overtaken by the assassins and killed. Then the pair returned and "finished" Dugas, thereafter tumbling his body into a ravine. During the few minutes of the chase, Dugas managed to write a dying accusation in his note book which later was found where he had thrown it, behind a bush.

ASTYLUM MEN RESIGN.

Nine employees of the State Hospital for the Insane have resigned their jobs after an unavailing attempt to enforce at the institution the eight-hour law, which seemed to be the last Legislature and State administration. The matter at first was considered a joke, outside of the asylum, but proved very serious indeed. It is told that ten more attendants would be required were the law obeyed, and that the nurses, therefore, were asked to sign a paper releasing the management from liability for the overtime required of them. There were some side issues concerning a couple of employees who came here from the Patton (California) asylum, as well as the usual personal recriminations between the management and the dissatisfied employees. The place has been filled and the work of the institution is progressing satisfactorily.

DRINKS ACID.

Yesterday, in a hut in the northeastern part of the city, C. E. Stanton committed suicide by drinking carbolio acid, and then shooting himself through the body. He was a hopeless consumptive, living by the bounty of the Associated Charities. Papers upon the body showed he had served a couple of enlistments in the army and that he had been discharged in good physical condition, and with an excellent record.

ANOTHER SUICIDE.

A second suicide was that of Mrs. Ignacia Gastellon, aged 32, who chose strychnine as the medium of death. She left a couple of small children and a husband, from whom she had been separated.

The Mean Men Growers' Association has sued the Mutual Distributing Company and the National Surety Company for $14,341, balance alleged due from the sale of melons furnished by the association during the past season.

Spinal agent Andrew D. Pollock has been placed in charge of the Ft. Yuma Indian reservation, succeeding Miss Anna C. Egan, who has been transferred to the White Earth reservation. Miss Egan had been at Yuma for many years.

PENSIONS FOR INDIANS.

A bill has been introduced by Congressman Carl Hayden for the pensioning of a number of Indians who served the United States at Sacaton during the Geronimo campaign. The roll of the proposed Pima pensioners now is being made up at the Sacaton agency.

The second agricultural fair of the Pima Indians is to be held at Sacaton October 21, with prizes for Indian products of all kinds, and with entertainment especially designed to interest the "aboriginal" attendance.

NOTED DIVORCE CASE.

The local District Court has been given the celebrated divorce case of Helen F. Andrade against Alberto F. Andrade, the general manager of the Inter-California Railway at Calexico, Cal. The original complaint was filed in 1910. The parties to the suit were married in 1895 at San Marcos, Tex. If the efforts of the Arizona Congressmen delegation are of avail, the winter, the next battalions of the United States navy is to bear the name of Arizona.

RAILROAD EXTENSION.

(Special Correspondence of the Times.)

HAYDEN (Ariz.) Sept. 22.—An important three-mile extension is to be built at once from the end of the Arizona Eastern Railroad, in the Gila River Canyon, to Christmas, to provide an outlet for the ores of the Gila Sulphide Copper Company, a subsidiary corporation of the Development Company of America, represented in Arizona by Frank M. Murphy of Prescott. The property formerly was operated by the Sedona Mountain Mining Company, which for a while operated a smelter and shipped matte, the low price of copper at the time and the high cost of transportation finally compelling stoppage of operations. It is understood that the Arizona Eastern has contracted to haul ore from Christmas to the Hayden smelter, a distance of about twelve miles, for 25 cents a ton, and that the smelter, which now is handling only Ray concentrates, will take from 500 to 1000 tons a day of Christmas ore. The workings are sufficiently well extended to furnish this great quantity, and the ore is understood to average about 5 per cent. copper. The extension will be up a steep hillside, necessitating three switchbacks. Connection with the railroad has heretofore been by a tramway.

NO STRIKE AT RAY.

Ridicule is expressed at Ray over the threat of President Moyer of the Western Federation of Miners that he will close the Ray mines by declaring a strike such as that now known at Bingham, Utah, on property owned by the same man, George Dittmore. The threat at Ray are not organized by the Western Federation and would pay scant attention to agitators. They number 2000, mainly Mexicans, who receive pay considered liberal by themselves, and who are untrammelled by the usual company store or outside expense.

VOLUNTEERS ON AGAIN.

Success of German Song Festival at Venice Leads to Its Repetition There Tomorrow and Sunday.

The success of the German Volksfest, which was held in the German Village at Venice Saturday and Sunday, together with the many requests for its repetition, have prompted the Executive Committee of the Sud Pacific Sangerbund to reopen the German Village tomorrow and Sunday.

In addition to the usual programme of song and dance, there will be a prize wrestling tournament, participated in by several well-known athletes and a paper and pencil contest of note. Roeder H. Roeder has agreed to throw any three men in one hour and a half, or five men in 100 with the Executive Committee as a guaranty that he will do so.

Commencing at 1 p. m. on Sunday a lengthy and complete programme will be rendered, including choral singing by the United Singers of Southern California, concert by Moore's Fiddle Band, numerous selections in song and dance by a large troupe of Tyroleans, a girls' wooden shoe band, and a number of numerous notable vaudeville acts, from Los Angeles theaters.

WASH LEGAL CARES AWAY.

Deputies of District Attorney Surprised Him at Ranch Home and Try New Open-Air Plunge.

That the legal mind, relieved of its professional cares for a time, glories in water and other liquids, inside and out, was demonstrated last night, when deputies of the District Attorney rode in a body to Capt. Frederick's ranch at Hynes and gave their chief a great surprise. Mr. Frederick had arranged the party, and there were good things without number to eat and drink.

Each deputy took his bathing suit to try Capt. Frederick's new outdoor plunge. Questions of buoyancy and displacement were disposed of in a moonlight swimming carnival quite as easily as problems of law at the office. Everybody was ducked, and it was cast to the winds and the havoc at table afterward was tremendous.

The evening was passed in reminiscence and collaboration of fishy stories, and the world was divided into Ananias and Ananias. Most of the party went home late; some are at the ranch yet.

FOR BALD HEADS
A Treatment That Costs Nothing If It Fails.
We want you to try three large bottles of Rexall "33" Hair Tonic on our personal guarantee that the trial will not cost you a penny if it does not give you absolute satisfaction. That's proof of our faith in this remedy, and it should indubitably demonstrate that we know what we are talking about when we say that Rexall "33" Hair Tonic will grow hair on bald heads, except where baldness has been caused by such long duration that the roots of the hair are entirely dead, the follicles closed and grown over, and the scalp is glazed.

Remember, we are basing our statements upon what has already been accomplished by the use of Rexall "33" Hair Tonic, and we have the right to assume that what it has done for thousands of others it will do for you. In any event you cannot lose anything by giving it a trial on our liberal guarantee. Two sizes, 50 cents and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies in this community only at our stores. I CURE PILES
Without an operation
BY MY PAINLESS DISMOUNT METHOD.
With my method an operation is absolutely unnecessary. For I dismount the pile tumors without pain, inconvenience or loss of time. I also cure without operation Prolapsus, Hemorrhoids, Ulcer, Hemorrhage and Prolapse. My dismounting treatment is absolutely my own and no other physician is using it. Call at my office and I will be pleased to give you the names and ad-cured, whom you may interview in regard to my treatment. I treat no disease except those of the Rectum and Bowels.

I GUARANTEE TO CURE every case I treat.
My Dear Dr. White: I wish to express to you again my heartfelt appreciation for what you have done for me. I am completely cured, and during the treatment I did not turn away from my work. I therefore commend you and your method to all sufferers from rectal

HAL CHASE PICKS WOOD.

Says All Big League Stars Fear Him.

Joe Will Be Big Feature of World Series.

His Best Ball Is Crossed Dip and Jump.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES)
NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Sept. 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] After Joe Wood beat the Yankees yesterday, Hal Chase, who has been trying to hit Joe as other batters have tried in the American League this season, came to the conclusion that Joseph will be a possible for the Giants to solve or any other club.

"There is a common expression
among ball players in the American League that when you can't see them you can't hit them," said Chase. "That goes for Walter Johnson and Joe Wood. In some mysterious way Joe has a jump on his fast ball that is most puzzling. If he has that fast ball working that is all he will have to pitch. You walk up to the home depot, follow every move Joe makes when he starts to wind up, then you swing and as you see the sphere go by the plate you come to the conclusion that it is a cross between a dip and a jump. I think he will be the big factor in the big set of games with the Giants. Look for him to open up at the Polo Grounds. He is working up to that game now."
"Wood has been more effective this season than he has at any time since he has been in the league. All the batters in our league have talked him over in the clubhouse and around the hotels and all have concluded that his fast ball was about the best they have looked at in years. Lajoie, Cobb and Jackson all say the same thing and they are the best batters in the American League and can hit all kinds of pitching."

ARTHUR IRWIN VERY DISCOURAGED MAN.

After weeks spent in observing the work of young players in the Minor League throughout the country, Arthur Irwin, the veteran scout of the New York Americans, has come to the conclusion that the left-handed pitcher is dying out.
"I've combed the bushes this year as never before," said Irwin on his return to New York, "and I have seen such a scarcity of southpaws.
They are not to be had."
"My experience is the same as the experience of other scouts with whom I have talked. I can not account for it, except on the theory that left-handed persons are getting rare in all walks of life."
"In my travels this season I saw very few left-handed pitchers, fewer than I ever saw in all my years in baseball. I'll venture the prediction that next season there will be fewer left-handed pitchers in the big league than in any season in twenty-five years."

LEACH CROSS BARRED.
NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—[By A. P.
Night Wire.] It is announced that the State Athletic Commission, which has supervised the boxing of Lem Keag in a four-round fight in the festival Friday night. Several other bouts will be staged also. Harry Gilmore will act as referee.

RACING TO CONTINUE.
BALTIMORE (Md.) Sept. 25.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] Racing will continue at Havre de Grace on the scheduled close of the meeting next Monday. Judge Harlan, in the Circuit Court at Belair late today, granted the application of counsel for the track officials for an injunction restraining the State authorities from interfering with the continued operation of the track.

HARD TASK AHEAD.
CHAMPAIGN (Ill.) Sept. 26.—[By
A. P. Night Wire.] Practice of the University of Illinois eleven was devoted today to attempts to whip line into shape. Coach Lindgren is working to develop a squad of forwards from inexperienced material.

RED SOX MAKE MOST HITS
THE GIANTS SCORE RUNS.

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Sept. 26.—[Special Dispatch.] Now that the Giants have really clinched the pennant, the figures of the work of the two teams which were in the fight for the world's championship are worth study.

Red Sox.	Giants.
Games played	145
Games won	101
Games lost	45
Present average	69.6
Runs scored	650
Base hits	1312
Two-base hits	229
Three-base hits	74
Home runs	100
Total bases	1645
Batting average	.278
Sacrifice hits	166
Stolen bases	161
Put outs	2445
Errors	162
Fielding average	.957

From these figures it will be seen that, while Boston has scored the most hits, the Giants have amassed more runs from their output by a good margin. The two teams are hitting fairly evenly at that.

FIGHT MANAGERS
DASHING AROUND.

UNCLE TOM MCCAREY ONLY ONE NOT EXCITED.

Joe Levy Has Made a Furious
dash for San Francisco to See What Bill Nolan Is Doing and Bill Is Grinding Out Dispatches to Tell of a Nearly Match With Wolgast.

BY UPPER CUT.
The fight game has now arrived at the chicken stage.

All the managers concerned in making a match for Thanksgiving Day for the lightweight championship of the world are furiously dashing around like agitated hens.

Tom Jones, after a mad gallop around Philadelphia and New York, dashed down to New Orleans and tried to sign up Joe Mandot. Now he is headed toward the Coast intent on matching Wolgast for Taft or some other flag station.

Joe Levy was taken with a sudden dash for San Francisco to see what Bill Nolan is doing.

Bill Nolan, meanwhile, was in a death lock with his typewriter, pounding out a long telegram to me announcing that $25,000 had been deposited and it was all fixed for the Wolgast-Ritchie fight—all but getting the consent of Wolgast.

The only person not visibly excited is Uncle Tom McCarey. He is saying nothing, but is going ahead with his plans for the famous series of fight carnivals at Vernon by night—where the purses are fifteen dollars and up.

Uncle Tom does not have to be excited. He has good reason for believing that the championship fight on Thanksgiving Day will take place at Vernon. He holds the cards.

Uncle Tom stands pat on the statement that Wolgast has agreed to box for him Thanksgiving Day. Joe Levy also stands pat with the assertion that McCarey has promised him the Thanksgiving Day date.

In spite of the furious clatter from my old friend Bill Nolan's typewriter, it looks very much as though the Thanksgiving Day fight would be between Rivers and Wolgast—and in Los Angeles.

Frankie Sullivan will fight again at Venable, this time to fulfill meeting Lem Keag in a four-round fight in the festival Friday night. Several other bouts will be staged also. Harry Gilmore will act as referee.

FOURTEEN ALL RIGHT.
MINNEAPOLIS, Sept. 26.—[By A. P.
Night Wire.] Fourteen of the University of Minnesota's football squad today were declared eligible by the Faculty Committee. Preparations are being made for the game with South Dakota next Saturday.

Western League.

HEINIE THIEF:
HOMER FOR KANE

Vernon Beats Angels After Twelve Innings.

Decision by Newhouse Stirs Angels to Frenzy.

Twelfth-Inning Spurt Wins
for Villagers.

BY HARRY WILLIAMS.

"Heinie" Heimuller, home run hitter, stole two bases, and Johnny Kane, speed merchant, got a home run. Vernon won, 2 to 1, but the achievements of Messrs. Kane and Heimuller stand out as the ferocious features of yesterday's little muss.

Said little muss went twelve innings. That, however, is not a noteworthy event. These slumber parties are becoming so frequent of late that they are lucky if they get in the papers at all.

We will let you in on the doze and deciding, inning immediately.
With the score, of course, standing 1 to 1—that's the way all thoroughly satisfactory baseball stories start—the Tigers exercised their prerogative and went to bat in the last half of the twelfth. Prior to that time Kane had lamed the ball into the Luna Park zoo for Vernon's only tally and Metzger had foot-footed it around the course in the ninth for the tying run.

That explains how the Tigers happened to go to bat in the last half of the twelfth. Lew Litchi was the first man up. Lew's first act after reaching the plate was to hit a pure and undisturbed single to left.

This brought Agnew to the plate.
Samuel sacrificed dutifully. Check to Moore, the same depositing Litchi at second. Brackenridge "raked all on one swing. Berger examined the ball in short right, and endeavored to nail Litchi at third. Lew resorted to a long slide and gained his goal. With Litchi on third, it was on the cards for some one to produce a fly of some magnitude. Carlisle responded nobly.

The ball sailed into right field and into the receptive hands of "Heinie" Heimuller. Litchi started for home, and "Heinie" heaved resolutely. The ball veered a bit and hit the plate.
Boles moved a few feet toward third, gathered in the sphere and whirled in time to tag Litchi as he sped past.
Boles' mitt was knocked from his hand, but he maintained a death grip on the ball. Umpire Newhouse declared Litchi safe in a grim and determined manner. Stunned Los Angeles players made a bee for the umpire. They heeled on masses.

"Charley" Check was so grieved that he heaved a stone at the umpire and tried to pull it off. Newhouse diplomatically brought his "cauliflower" ear around where Check could see it, and "Charley" let it go. There is nothing in the world inspires respect quicker than a hearing apparatus that has been disfigured in the ring.

BAUM FOR NEWHOUSE.
The Los Angeles players continued to rave at some length—and also at some distance. Newhouse heaped the crowd which was already surging onto the field, and made his way to the clubhouse. That heaven-sent Newhouse said: "Boles failed to get the ball on Litchi. He swung and touched him, but did this with the wrong hand."

President Baum, who was at the ring-side, upheld Newhouse. "His decision was absolutely correct," said Mr. Baum. "Heimuller hit Litchi with his glove instead of with the ball, and his mitt was knocked from his hand. The closeness and importance of the play made me trying decision for the umpire, but I am sure that Mr. Newhouse rendered the only one possible."

Check and Agnew were the original mound combatants. It was an even thing between them until Kane

CHANCE CALLS MURPHY
LIAR AND AN INGRATE.

Peerless Leader Says Club Owner Does Not Like His

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE

patch.] "I President Murphy through liquor he's a liar and an ingrate. If he says the boys lost the 1910 world's series through liquor he's a plain liar, and I have seen statement under his own signature that he was guilty of both statements."

This interview was given out here today by Manager Frank L. Chance of the Chicago Nationals, the man whose relations with Murphy, the game as the best manager baseball ever produced. It is a fact that Chance, with a mediocre team in 1910-11-12 won one pennant and finished second twice. In seven years he has won two world's championships, four pennants and finished second three times, the best record ever made by a major league manager. And he has kept his team infact, to a great extent, from year to year.

The open breach now existing between the club owner and manager is believed to preclude the possibility of their relations. Chance, wonderfully popular with players, fans and new-paper men, has always been handicapped by Murphy, who is not popular with anybody. Chance has felt this, and on several occasions the men have been in an open row. Murphy cepting when they are winners. He is trying to hurt not only the team, but the individual players as well, by

"It is true that most of my players reflection on the manager, and one which Chance was not slow to recognize."

FROM THE MASON TO THE MAJESTIC

By JULIAN JOHNSON

The question of one of the leading men for the new Morosco Theater seems in a fair way to disposition. In all probability, Orrin Johnson will hold up principal honors as one "type"—there are to be two or more of everybody, you know.

At least, Morosco has made Johnson a proposition. Johnson is now wondering whether to accept the local temptation, or make his winter wend back to Broadway, as usual.

In more than a dozen years Orrin Johnson has not missed a winter as a leading man on Broadway. Last year he had not one show, but three, before the season closed.

Morosco has engaged a woman star for the Belasco Theater.

Who is she?

Marguerite Leslie will play in "The Money Moon," and will then return to New York.

The unknown celebrity, to put it in Irish, will occupy the rest of the time until the Vaughan-Lytell engagement.

The engagement of Reeves-Smith for the role of Jerry, in "Peb of My Heart," was consummated yesterday.

A telegraph line says that Bob Morris has proved an absolute knockout as Capt. Hatch, in "The Bird of Paradise," and is rivalling even Theodore Roberts for first honors in the part.

Robert's first honors in the part, in the New York company. This year is played by Frank Sheridan, recently released by Morosco for France's production of "Fine Feathers."

The comedy of the quarrel of Muriel Starr and Hap Hogan.

On Wednesday Dick Ferris, the publicity grocer in his cerebralism, working as actively as ever, dragged his Lyceum leading lady—Miss Starr—out of the ball park grand stand onto the grass, to be photographed with Hap.

Miss Starr was sore—very sore. She tried to get back, but she couldn't break the hand-on-arm engagement with her manager.

"Please release me!" she exclaimed in her highest-tragedy voice. "I've never been offered such an indignity!"

"Oh, come on now—" from the theater boss.

But at this juncture, Hap, with outraged nobility, butted in: "Nix, not if the lady don't want it. I'm sure I don't have to force myself on people." And he walked away.

Meanwhile, a photographer had already gotten in his deadly, and the picture was on a plate.

On his way back to town, Mr. Ferris explained in several pages, to the astonished Miss Starr, the greatness, the loftiness, the spiritual magnanimity, intellectual breadth and (sometimes) prophetic vision of the wronged Mr. Hogan.

Miss Starr, in turn, was so impressed that she wrote Mr. Hogan a lengthy note of apology, couched in true Websterian, also Spencerian.

Tempus Fugit.

DAVID GRAHAM PHILLIPS, HACKETT'S REMINISCENCE.

"THE last time I met David Graham Phillips he gave me a vivid demonstration of exactly how fast times flies."

The remark was made by a former classmate of the author of "The Grain of Dust"—in fact, no other than James K. Hackett, who will appear in the piece at the Mason next week.

"It was in Paris just two years ago. I ran into him by chance on the boulevard and the first thing he said was: 'Did you ever realize how fast time really does fly?'" I told him I didn't think the matter had ever been brought very strongly to me. "Well, come on," he said, "and I'll show you." We walked down the boulevard to where one of the big newspapers—the Temps, I think—has its office. There right at the corner of the street is a big clock, the remarkable feature of which is the long second hand that makes a complete revolution of the big face every minute. And I tell you it does go some. It is startling as it shows you how fast the seconds are slipping by. There, said Phillips, pointing to the clock. "I come down here and look at it every time I get a chance. It fascinates me and at the same time it frightens me. It makes me want to hurry up." He went on to say that he was planning a story in which the clock would figure, but I don't think he ever wrote it, poor fellow—at least, I've never seen it published.

"I met Phillips first at Princeton in the autumn of 1885. He had done his first two years at Depauw, out in Indiana, where he came from, and had then come on to Princeton to finish the course and get his degree. We were good friends from the start. He liked to talk and I was a good listener. He used to like to express what at the time seemed to be rather heretical views, and I remember I frequently wondered if he really meant what he said; but he has expressed some of the same views in his books, so maybe he did mean them. We Hap received the pen appeal, and was impressed, in turn, with the lady's sincerity. So he sent her an enormous box of flowers—last evening.

An acquaintance, romantic by nature, asked him if he was stuck on her.

"Nix," said Hap, again. "I got her note, and I wanted to show her it was all right with me—but, hell! I couldn't write no letter!"

James K. Hackett and his company will arrive here tomorrow.

For six weeks Hackett has been acting at the Columbia Theater in San Francisco.

While in the northern city he acquired a good time.

An automobile, for which he paid more than $1000 rent.

A furnished house, which cost him half that amount.

A reputation as a dice shark.

"The Gamblers" and "Barbarosa" are both continuances of last week, at the Belasco and Burbank theaters, respectively.

Miss Marguerite Leslie is probably the only lady player who is on familiar terms with royalty.

In England, Miss Leslie has been on several country week-ends with the King of Spain.

"The King is really a remarkable chap," said Miss Leslie, last evening, in her reminiscences of recent English days.

"In the first place, he is thoroughly democratic."

"With a wretched physique, a poor, wasted body damned by a bad and brilliant line reaching back for centuries, he simply willed that he should be strong and well. And that gigantic resolution made him the man he is today."

"He speaks English perfectly."

"His education is cosmopolitan."

"He had rather the rest of the continental train, and—if his Hapsburg jaw did not so mark him—would love to saunter through Paris, Vienna and even Berlin, chatting with people and getting all sorts of ideas from all sorts of individuals."

"He is very fond of his family, gets along well with his dual mother-in-law, and is altogether much of an unusual citizen and interesting man."

W. W. Decker, a Mori Slinger apostle, is in town ahead of "The Heartbreakers," the first show of the new season in at the Majestic.

True, the Majestic's "years" run so close that only an official line separates them, but new year this is, after all.

Gertrude Short, the baby wonder, is likely to be the real big noise of "The Money Moon."

Little Miss Short, who is now playing a brief but startling tragedy role in "Barbarosa," has a long part in the piece going on soon at the Belasco—an all-important role, upon which the whole plot turns.

had tastes in literature very much alike, and we read a great deal together and discussed our reading.

"Phillips wasn't what he called a 'polar' in Princeton—that is, he wasn't an exceptionally hard student. Some things he cared nothing about, and he never bothered with them at all until examination time came along; then he worked all night and got enough of the subject to pass. But other things he did like—literature and history and psychology and kindred branches—and in those he excelled easily."

Phillips had a very creditable standing in his class.

"Immediately after he left college he went to Cincinnati and became a newspaper man—first, I think, on the Times-Star, a new paper then. Afterward he went to New York, and his ability to write got him a job on the Sun when it was the best written paper in America. Then he went to the World, where he was the chief reporter, being sent on all the big and important assignments, for several years. He never was what you would describe as a 'hog' for work—although maybe that is doing him an injustice for he always did what there was to do and his paper never got left on a story he went after, no matter what the difficulties of getting it. Still he always gave you the impression, and I rather think he tried to give the impression, that he didn't like to exert himself over-much.

"He was still doing newspaper work when he published his first novel, 'The Great God Success.' Soon after that he gave up the paper and devoted himself entirely to his novel writing—which he really enjoyed. He always did his writing at night. Then he slept late and breakfasted about noon. He only ate two meals a day, and he had a technique, it showed power, and I asked him why he didn't try again. He replied that once was enough for him. That the novel he had had with that one play before it got produced had sickened him of the whole thing, and he did not think he would ever write another play. He was at his hand at one other, though—a dramatization of his story, 'White Magic.' He was at work on that when the war shot, poor fellow, and he left it unfinished."

MANY SWORDFISH BUT NO TUNA.

AVALEN (Cal.) Sept. 25.—W. Bradbury of Los Angeles today arrived from San Clemente with three swordfish, with an aggregate weight of 602 pounds. The largest fish measured nearly eleven feet. Before gaffing the monster fought the angler two hours, and leaped clear of the water thirty-nine times to gain its liberty. Over seventy swordfish have been brought to gaff by anglers since May 1, the commencement of the Tuna Club summer tournament. Despite the fact that every method has been tried by the rod and reel men to land tuna, the fish have evaded their pursuers. Three small fish weighing less than fifty pounds each are all the fish of this variety recorded. Many tuna have been reported.

Big Squad on Pomona Field.

Thirty-one Men Show Up for Football Practice.

Full Back Barnes Will Be in the Team Again.

Ash and Hill Not Allowed to Register.

By AL G. WADDELL.

Joy and gloom mingled on the Pomona College campus when Barnes appeared on alumni field in a football suit, but Ash and Hill sat on the side lines, under the ban of the faculty.

The return of Barnes was an agreeable surprise. His father had come to the conclusion that his son had had enough of college life, and did not send him to Pomona this year; but he came, anyway. He has a commission as a waiter in a Claremont restaurant, and expects to make a go of it without the father's money, a good supply of which he has always had at his command.

It was suggested that his father might decide to send him through after he learned that the boy was at Claremont. "When he comes down, there is no telling what he will do," said Barnes yesterday. He left his home in Santa Barbara, and when he arrived at the college town, wrote the father that he would not be home.

"I am here to help Pomona beat Occidental again," said the big boy, with a laugh.

There was a surprise attached to Ash, the veteran line man, and Hill, the best prospect for a quarterback. These men came back with parental backing, but the faculty would not let them register, yesterday.

Ash tried everything. His mother came up from San Diego and did all in her power to plead her big son's case, but all to no avail. He had fallen below P in one course last semester and under the rules of the college, was dropped for one semester.

Hill was "broke up" over the decision of the faculty not to allow him to register. He stood in the shadow of Smiley Hall and cried like a child. Some of the good fellows who sympathized with him, felt like crying, too, if the expressions on their faces meant anything.

"Up presenting satisfactory evidence of increased ability to prosecute college work with creditable standing, a student who has been removed solely for scholarship may be reinstated after one semester has elapsed," the rule reads, and both boys expect to get back into college in February.

THIRTY-ONE MEN OUT.

Stanton had thirty-one men out for the first practice. They all looked fast, but light. Sanford was the heaviest, and his weight, according to the coach's scales, was only 154. Henderson is heavier, but it is doubtful whether or not he will be eligible this year. Of course, he would be allowed to play in the school of Mines games, but it is a question in the minds of many whether a coach could replace a man who had been playing the position with Henderson on his previous record.

The Pomona back field should be as fast as ever. Lutz at half is in perfect condition and faster than ever. Brooks, for the other side, is in great shape, but heavier than last year. That is nothing, though. Stanton says he will have him down to weight in time for the first game. The return of Barnes solves the full-back problem for the clever coach, and he will get busy on a quarterback at once.

There are several quarters among the freshmen, but parents say "no football," and these lads who have played the position in high school will have to watch Stanton develop one.

"It would not surprise me in the least," said the Occidental lad, "to see Stanton show up with a man who will be game as a cat. There is some truth to this, for it always takes some time for Pomona to get started. Health, the hurdler, is out and looks good for a place at tackle. Cogswell of last year's squad is also in the running and seems to have the making of a real Pomona tackle. Eakin is another underdog from last season, who is a good prospect for a tackle berth.

MITCH END MATERIAL.

Of ends, there are plenty, for there are a number of holdovers in boys who played under Stanton last year and some the year before, who now expect to come into their own. Crawford, who made All-State end last year, and Wilson, are the leaders. The other wing men who looked good in the workout, were Reeves, Jensen and Metz. Metz will be tried out at tackle, it is thought. He is fast, yet heavier than the other ends, and should make a good man for even a back field position.

The veteran McFadden, is out. He will probably be shifted from guard to center this year. Sanford will be a leader for the guard job, and Clarke, another man of last year's squad, should put up a good fight for guard or tackle.

The freshman class has a lot of football material from the high schools, but the incoming lads are all light. None of the baby class was out last night, however, as they were engaged in the task of guarding the flag poles in the freshman-sophomore scrap.

"Although our prospects are not as bright as they might be," said Capt. Lutz after practice, "we are not worrying. We have not the best men in the country, but we have Mr. Stanton and we think he is the best coach in the country, and we will do as we have always done since he has been here, win the championship."
